OPS Rolls Back Used Car Prices

New Ruling 6 Per Cent Below Last January Levels

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15—(AP)—The government today rolled back ceiling prices on used automobiles 6 per cent below levels of last January.

The Office of Price Stabilization (OPS) said its new dollars-and-cents ceilings set prices at about current market levels. An exception to the immediate rollback will be 1951 models which may be sold at the going market price.

However, OPS said 1951 cars, along with all others, will be subject to a 2 per cent deduction for depreciation on Jan. 1. Every three months thereafter, on the first day of each calendar quarter, another 2 per cent must be cut from the price of all the named 35 makes of cars manufactured between 1940 and 1951.

Oldest Model

The ceiling price of pre-1940 cars will be that of the oldest model listed for the same make.

The new dollars and cents order replaces previous orders setting ceilings on the basis of prices in several used car guide books. Provisions of the regulation are effective Nov. 20. However, the dollars and cents prices do not go into effect until 30 days after that date.

The order divides the country into three geographical areas for pricing. The areas generally reflect differences in shipping for pricing. The areas generally reflect differences in shipping costs of the cars originally. Those in region A will have the lowest price and those in region C the highest under the lengthy tables.

OPS gave this example of how the 2 per cent depreciation will apply:

A 1950 Chevrolet styline special 4-door sedan in region A is listed at $1,555. On Jan. 1, 1952, the ceiling price will be 2 per cent less than that price, or $1,523.90. On April 1, 1952 the ceiling price will be 2 per cent less than $1,523.90, or $1,493.42, and so on for each calendar quarter.

The ceiling prices include all standard equipment, as well as radio, heater and other items on the car at the time the seller bought the car. Automatic transmissions or drives, or air-conditioning units are extra and prices also are listed which may be added to the car ceiling.

Extra Equipment

OPS said the ceilings for such extra equipment must be depreciated at the same rate as that of the car itself.

The agency said allowances for a used car being traded in on another new or used car or automobile may exceed the ceiling price, however, the allowance must not exceed the ceiling for the car on which it is being traded.

OPS specified that used cars on dealers' lots must bear tags stating the make, model, line or series and the ceiling price, including any extra, special or optional equipment. The tag also must show the price at which the car is being offered for sale. Sellers also must issue invoices within seven days after a sale giving this detailed information.

The order bars sellers from any special requirements as a condition for sale, such as: demanding time payments, loans through any particular agency, or purchasing extra equipment, parts or service to get the car.

Marion Soldier Wounded in Korea

Pvt. Ralph E. Foreman, son of Mrs. Harold Huggins of Fountain Street, recently was wounded in the left arm while serving with the 24th Division in Korea.

He has been in combat action for more than three months and in service for 13 months.

Pvt. Foreman is the second member of his family to suffer wounds. His brother Hoyt S. Foreman, a member of the 17th Infantry Division, was wounded several months ago and awarded the Purple Heart.

A Foreign Policy For Americans

By Senator Robert A. Taft

CHAPTER 1

What Are the Purposes Of a Foreign Policy?

NO ONE can think intelligently on the many complicated problems of American foreign policy unless he decides first what he considers the real purpose and object of that policy.

Fundamentally, I believe the ultimate purpose of our foreign policy must be to protect the liberty of the people of the United States. The American Revolution was fought to establish a nation "conceived in liberty." That liberty has enabled our people to increase steadily their material welfare and their spiritual freedom. To achieve that liberty we have gone to war, and to protect it we would go to war again.

SEN. TAFT

Only second to liberty is the maintenance of peace. The results of war may be almost as bad as the destruction of liberty and, in fact, may lead, even if the war is won, to something very close to the destruction of liberty at home. War not only produces pitiful human suffering and utter destruction of many things worth-while, but, it is almost as disastrous for the victor as for the vanquished.

War, undertaken even for justifiable purposes, such as to punish aggression in Korea, has often had the principal results of wrecking the country intended to be saved and spreading death and destruction among an innocent civilian population. War should never be undertaken or seriously risked except to protect American liberty.

that this policy was the best way to avoid disputes with other nations and to maintain the liberty of this country without war.

Not Isolationism

Our traditional policy of neutrality and non-interference with other nations was based on the principle that this policy was the best way to avoid disputes with other nations and to maintain the liberty of this country without war.

From the days of George Washington that has been the policy of the United States. It has never been isolationism; but it has always avoided alliances and interference in foreign quarrels as a preventive against possible war, and it has always opposed any commitment by the United States, in advance, to take any military action outside of our territory.

I have always felt, however, that we should depart from this principle if we could set up an effective international organization, because in the long run the success of such an organization should be the most effective assurance of world peace and therefore of American peace. I regretted that we did not join the League of Nations.

We have now taken the lead in establishing the United Nations. The purpose is to establish a rule of law throughout the world and protect the people of the United States by punishing aggression the moment it starts and deterring future aggression through joint action of the members of such an organization.

Theory of Preventing War

I think we must recognize that this involves the theory of a preventive war, a dangerous undertaking at any time. Our Korean adventure shows the tremendous danger, if the new organization is badly organized or improperly supported by its members and by the public opinion of the people of the world.

The United Nations has failed to protect our peace, I believe, because it was organized on an unsound basis with a veto power in five nations and is based, in fact, on the joint power of such nations, effectively only so long as they agree. I believe the concept can only be successful if based on a rule of law and justice between nations and willingness on the part of all nations to abide by the decisions of an impartial tribunal.

The fact that the present organization has largely failed in its purpose has forced us to use other

Hunters Take To Field For Season Opener

Rabbits, Pheasants In Good Supply Throughout State

Suitable fall weather greeted hunters in the Marion area today as the rabbit and pheasant season opened. Legal shooting started at 9 this morning but hunters were nearing the fields long before that hour.

Factories, schools and business places were affected by the opening as employes and pupils took to the fields.

Some plants closed operations for the day to allow employes to get out on the first day. Others made arrangements for those employes to be off a day in order to hunt.

School Boys Excused

Schools in the county and city set up programs allowing boys to hunt who presented written permission from his parents. At Harding High School alone, a total of 128 boys were excused.

Hotels in the city reported an influx of out-of-town residents for the opening. Hunters have moved in from all parts of Ohio for a crack at the local pheasant

Vote Is 71 to 54

House Poll Shows Taft Favored Over Eisenhower

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15—(AP)—Senator Robert A. Taft tops Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, 71 to 54, as the first choice of House Republicans for the GOP presidential nomination in a poll conducted by Rep. Cole (R-NY).

Results of the private survey, started in September and concluded this week, were disclosed by Cole today in the wake of California Gov. Earl Warren's announcement he is a candidate for the Republican nomination.

Warren's move yesterday put his hat formally in the ring along with Taft's. So far the Ohio senator and Warren are the only avowed candidates in either major party.

Eisenhower-for-President Republican backers are hard at work in his behalf, however, despite the general's refusal to say publicly whether he will run.

161 Replies

Cole's poll, which brought replies from 161 of the 186 House Republicans to whom he sent questionnaires, gave Warren five votes in advance of Warren's announcement of his candidacy.

Taft and Eisenhower between them polled 125 first choice ballots, with Taft getting a 17-vote edge. In third place as No. 1 choice was Senator Everett Dirksen of Illinois with 13 votes. Gen. Douglas MacArthur was fourth with 12 votes, followed by Warren with 5.

The poll showed Warren second only to Taft for representatives' second choice with 23 votes to Taft's 30. Warren was the Republican vice presidential nominee in 1948.

Cole's conclusion was that his survey showed "serious consideration" by his Republican colleagues for only Taft and Eisenhower.

Senator Nixon (R-Calif), however, termed Warren "the strongest dark-horse candidate" in the field. Nixon said he had found strong grass roots backing for Warren in several states.

Reds Switch Attitude On Cease-Fire

May Not Ask For Immediate Halt, U.N. Officer Says

MUNSAN, Korea, Nov. 15—(AP) — Communist negotiators hinted today they may not press for an immediate cease-fire in Korea.

An Allied spokesman, Lt. Col. Howard S. Levie, said the Reds today backed away from yesterday's position that fixing a buffer zone now would "mean cease-fire in fact."

He said they described their speeches yesterday as entirely unnecessary because their Saturday proposal "spoke for itself."

The Communists continued to insist on immediate establishment of a cease-fire line paralleling the battle front. However, under terms of their Saturday proposal, this line could be changed through subsequent military action.

"Inconsistent"

Levie described the new Communist position as "inconsistent" with one taken Wednesday by North Korean Maj. Gen. Lee Song Cho and Chinese Maj. Gen. Hsieh Fang. The Red negotiators Wednesday said an immediate cease-fire would be an unavoidable result of the agenda agreed upon last July at Kaesong.

Two-man subcommittees representing both sides will meet again in Panmunjon at 11 a.m. Friday (9 p.m. EST Thursday) for another debate on the buffer zone issue.

A U. N. command spokesman said there was no mention of the Allies' prisoner of war atrocity charges at Thursday's negotiating session.

The spokesman, Lt. Cmdr. J. E. Bauernschmidt, said the only reference to prisoners of war came during a discussion of item four of the armistice agenda. This covers the exchange of war prisoners.

Throughout the negotiations, the U. N. command has expressed concern over the fate of Allied troops captured by Communists.

U. N. negotiators have insisted that an exchange of prisoners be arranged before a cease-fire becomes effective.

Mrs. Remsberg, Last Harding Sister, Dies

Mrs. Charity M. Remsberg, 85, sister of President Harding and the last member of the family, died Nov. 2 at her home at 1727 Bush St., Santa Ana, Calif. She was the widow of E. E. Remsberg, a machinery manufacturer in Santa Ana.

Word of her death, which occurred on the 86th birthday anniversary of President Harding, was received by her cousin, Mrs. J. H. Denman of 394 W. Center St. A sister, Mrs. Carolyn Votaw, died Oct. 22, in Washington, D. C. Mrs. Remsberg had been in failing health for the last two years.

A descendant of pioneer families, her paternal ancestors came to Ohio in a covered wagon in 1820. Her parents were Dr. George Tryon Harding, for many years a practicing physician here, who was born on the old Harding homestead at Bloominggrove, and Phoebe Dickerson Harding, whose birthplace was the Dickerson homestead also near Bloominggrove.

Following their marriage in June 1889 at the Harding home on E. Center St., Mr. and Mrs. Remsberg moved to Springfield, O. where they lived until moving to Santa Ana in 1904. His death occurred about eight years ago.

Surviving are three daughters, Miss Nell Marie Remsberg at home, Mrs. William J. Adams of Laguna Beach, Calif., and Mrs. Alton J. Looney of Santa Ana.

Mrs. Remsberg was a member of the Seventh Day Adventist Church.

Funeral services were conducted and burial made at Santa Ana.

Students, Faculty, Public Invited

Ground To Be Broken For New School Friday

Work on Marion's new high school building will get under way with ground-breaking ceremonies scheduled for 2 p.m. Friday.

The general public is invited to join with the board of education, Supt. Lester L. Dickey, high school faculty and student body for the ceremony.

Invited also to be present are Mayor Harold F. Robinson, A. E. Knowlton of Bellefontaine, of the Knowlton Construction Co., contractors, and Tom McLaughlin of Lima, a member of the firm of McLaughlin & Keil, architects.

The student body, headed by the Harding High School Band, will march to the building site near the Harding Stadium, weather permitting. A flag-raising ceremony will open the program.

J. D. Torrance, president of the board of education, will turn the first spadeful of dirt, and there will be informal talks.

Contracts for the new high school building, which were awarded Nov. 7, total $2,305,156. Cost of equipment, landscaping, architect's fee and driveways will bring the total cost of the building to about $2,750,000.

Construction is expected to take from 18 to 24 months.

The building will include 45 class rooms, a gymnasium and assembly room. It will be erected on land north of Harding Stadium bounded by Mandana Ave. and Seminole Ave. The land, already owned by the board of education, has been used as a parking lot for fans attending football games at the Stadium.

Judge Acts In Crawford Home Case

Overrules 3 of 4 Motions Made By Defendants

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS, Nov. 15 — Common Pleas Judge C. U. Ahl today overruled all but one of the motions filed by defendants in the Crawford County Home case.

The one motion he upheld was for a bill of particulars in the grand larceny and embezzlement charges filed jointly against former Crawford County Home Superintendent Harold Dinkel, County Commissioner Walter Sargel, and his brother, Arthur, manager of the Galion Equity.

Indicted by Grand Jury

The three had been indicted by the Crawford County grand jury after investigation of alleged irregularities in affairs of the home. They filed their defense motions

Selling Monkey New One for Star Want Ad Dept.

Practically everything has been sold through want ads in The Marion Star, but something new came up when Mrs. H. W. Packer of Caledonia offered a monkey for sale.

Mrs Packer had to sell the monkey because her Caledonia home did not have regulated heat and the seven-months-old animal was in danger of becoming sick.

The monkey, of the squirrel species, was sold to an ex-GI who said he had owned a monkey while overseas and had left it behind because of customs regulations upon entering the United States.

The monkey she sold stood about 12 inches tall and ate grapes, bananas, peanuts, oranges and meat, Mrs. Packer said.

She received two calls from her ad.

Amerman To Face Electric Chair Tonight

COLUMBUS, Nov. 15—(AP)—A stolid-faced, quiet farmer faced death in Ohio's electric chair tonight for plotting to murder the husband of a Norwegian war bride.

Max Amerman, 27, was convicted of persuading Jerry Killinger, 18, to shoot 23-year-old Harold Mast of Medina so Amerman could woo Mast's wife, Randi.

Killinger, whose 19th birthday falls Saturday, is slated to die a few hours before, unless—like Amerman—he receives clemency from Gov. Frank J. Lausche.

For several days, Lausche has

Curtain Goes Up on "Follies" Show Tonight

Curtain time for the first performance of the Junior Service Guild "Follies of 1951" is set for 8:15 tonight at the Palace Theater.

A second performance will be given at the same time Friday night.

A final dress rehearsal was held last night after the showing of the last movie at the Palace Theater. A weary but eager troop of performers left the theater about 7 a.m. today, ready to take their places on the stage at curtain time tonight.

The rehearsal "went on" before an audience of two, who bought tickets to see the rehearsal because they were unable to attend either of the regular performances.

Nearly 200 local and county persons will take part in the production, which is directed by Jay Rogers of the Jerome H. Cargill Co. of New York City. Costumes for the show were sent from New York.

Ticket holders will be entertained with 20 scenes, including musical, comedy, and specialty acts, as well as chorus and solo numbers. Glen Johnson and his orchestra will furnish music for the production.

Although many tickets have been sold in advance, they may still be obtained for tonight and Friday night's performances at the theater boxoffice.

Another 'Follies" was produced by the Guild in 1949.

LOAN SEEN UNLIKELY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15—(AP)—Officials here think it unlikely that the United States will grant any large-scale financial help to Iran as long as the explosive Iranian-British oil dispute remains unsettled.

Is Bombshell To Ridgway, Van Fleet

Supreme Command Rushes To "Clarify" Col. Hanley's Report

TOKYO, Nov. 15—(AP)—The reported Communist slaughter of some 5,500 American prisoners of war shocked General Headquarters from top to bottom today.

Col. James M. Hanley, chief of the war crimes section of the Eighth Army, said he divulged the figures because he thought American soldiers at the front ought to know what they are up against.

In an exclusive interview in Pusan, Korea, Hanley said the story about the "wanton murder" of American prisoners "should have been put out a long time ago."

Apparently no one knew he was going to make the statement—least of all Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, who was duck hunting.

General headquarters officers, after conferring with Hanley by telephone, are preparing an announcement tonight for release tomorrow to clarify "the basis for some of Hanley's figures."

Declines Comment

Even Gen. James A. Van Fleet, commander of the Eighth Army in Korea, said he had no advance knowledge. He declined to comment, explaining: "I have not had time to familiarize myself with the content of the statement."

Hanley is chief of the war crimes section of the Eighth Army. Hanley released the Red atrocity total yesterday at a press conference in Pusan, Korea.

What Hanley did was total all the reports and estimates of Communist atrocities since the beginning of the war.

These figures came from captured Reds, escaped United Nations prisoners, from questioning civilians, and from Allied agents operating behind Communist lines.

In some cases the bodies actually were counted. Many of the massacres had been reported long before.

Hanley Explains

It was Hanley's total that was staggering.

"All I wanted," Hanley said today in Pusan, "was to let the G.I.'s know what the Chinese are doing and let them realize the Communist propaganda."

He said that last September he submitted a memorandum to the office of the judge advocate general of general headquarters in Tokyo asking authority to tell the story. At the time he was leaving Korea for a business trip to Washington. He said on his return early this month he was notified the story could be released.

Hanley said he assumed the approval came through normal channels.

He emphasized that his announcement had nothing to do with the cease-fire talks at Panmunjom nor with war crimes.

Would Be Dynamite

"To start talking about war crimes at this time would be dynamite," Hanley said. "We shall stay away from it."

The Eighth Army's war crimes section, which Hanley heads, is the official investigating body for atrocities.

Some quarters said this was not the opportune time to put out such a story. Hanley said he found this reaction "rather amazing." "I did not expect that."

One high officer greeted the announcement with "hopeful skepticism."

"I am just hoping that our estimates are too high," he said. "I am keeping in mind that the enemy knows how dear to America every captured American soldier is and that every captured American is extremely valuable bargaining material in armistice negotiations."

Opposing View

Another officer countered:

"The high levels of the Communist armies may be aware of the bargaining value of American captives, but that knowledge might not extend down to the

Sponsored by Retail Merchants

1951 Christmas Parade Scheduled Next Friday

Through the cooperation of civic, religious and educational groups and organization in Marion and Marion County, the Retail Merchants Division of the Marion Chamber of Commerce is presenting a new and enlarged Christmas program this year.

Churches, schools and choral groups will participate Friday, Nov. 23, at 1 p.m. in a six unit parade consisting of 15 floats, bands and musical groups, portraying the religious aspect of the Christmas story through scenes and music.

The parade will also bring Santa Claus to Marion. He will make his headquarters at the courthouse throughout the Christmas season.

Street Decorations

Christmas street lights and decorations will be installed and lighted in the downtown area Thanksgiving night, Nov. 22. Electricians from the firms of Triple Service Co., United Electric Supply Co., Willey Electric Co., and the Ohio Edison Co. are volunteering their services in installing the street decorations.

Because of the cooperation from the electricians, the Retail Merchants are able to add approximately $1,000 worth of new ornaments this year to the street decorations.

In addition to the street lights, four lighted bell clusters will light the entrances to the downtown shopping area. Lighted wreaths will be displayed at the four corners of Main and Center Sts. A community Christmas tree in front of the courthouse will be topped with a Star of Bethlehem.

Presented Annually

The Christmas program is presented each year by the Retail Merchants to create interest and pride in Marion and its activities. The expense of these activities is financed entirely by the merchants.

Bert Freed, general chairman of the program, reports that the spirit of cooperation extended by all the groups participating in the program this year is very gratifying. The Merchants Division has expressed its hope that this is the beginning of a program which will be an annual event for many years.

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

DETROIT

OUT here, in the arsenal city from which military material must steadily roll, a coalition of left-wing extremists and pro-Communist provocateurs have put misery on the assembly line in an effort to mass-produce hysteria and discredit the fight against communism's Asiatic armies.

This crowd has dusted off all the old propaganda gimmicks of the depression days of the Thirties. And they've developed some new ones too, such as suing the Ford Motor Co. in the capitalist federal courts to prevent the massive firm from shifting vital machinery to other cities for strategic production in cooperation with the Defense Department.

Victor Riesel

Should this maneuver fail, the proletarian braintrusters will resort to more plebian action, such as outlaw picket lines and flying squads to shut down Ford, disrupt government schedules and embarrass Walter Reuther's efforts to help the jobless in his home city and still prevent violent upheaval on the nation's most vital industrial-war production front.

The air is filled with the old slogans of the grim days when you could recognize a comrade by his leather jacket. They're organizing politicalized unemployed leagues and, on those familiar gray-white throwaways which litter deserted streets after turbulent rallies, they talk of a people's third party.

They talk of the Ford Co. as the "common enemy." They speak of "mass marches" and "auto caravans" to carry their people to the doors of union leaders and company executives with whom they disagree politically—and whom they blame for the heartaches of Detroit's jobless.

THROUGH IT ALL, with the skilled propagandists' technique of repetition, runs the theme that the fight to contain the Sovietized Chinese armies is responsible for the Detroit crisis which, by next June, will throw 135,000 out of work.

One leaflet found on the streets after a Ford Union Armistice Day mass meeting here said openly that the layoffs were due to war production and therefore:

"Peace above all must see a continuous support for the peace proposal of U.S. Senator Johnson which calls for an armistice and truce in Korea, with the withdrawal of all non-Korean troops. This should be followed with all-out efforts to negotiate a peace pact between Britain, U.S., France, the Soviet Union and the People's Republic of China."

I WANT TO REPORT here that any competent researcher can find almost the exact wording in a recent issue of the Cominform Bulletin, published in Bucharest and mailed into these United States. Just who uses that phrase, the "People's Republic of China"?

This crowd is appealing to the 100,000 now unemployed in this city, a tragic unemployment which nothing written here tends to deprecate. It is a grim problem caused by the slash of auto car production down to four million cars a year, a figure soon to be cut again. There is just not enough metal for the auto plants—and there may not be enough for another 18 months.

So it's this seething economic malaise which the left wing crowd sleazily attempts to exploit. Everything is promised to everyone. In an effort to win support of all elements to this phalanx, they even have organized a Workers Defense Committee (not to be confused with the Workers Defense League) to fight for reinstatement of auto workers fired at Federal "suggestion" as bad security risks.

They help not the weary, frightened job hunter, by shouting for a $60-a-week unemployment compensation payment. This would run to over $25,000,000 a month and bankrupt the state.

They help not the idle with their program for a 30-hour week at 40-hours pay so that another 30,000 or so would be re-employed. That would bankrupt the company.

NOR ARE THE ANXIETIES of families without breadwinners soothed by propaganda which lies when it says that 500,000 auto-workers will be jobless by Christmas. That's adding arsenic to pie in the sky.

Nor does it help to go into court to prevent Ford machinery from being shifted to Buffalo, Cleveland or Cincinnati where others may find work. That's dog-in-the-manger propaganda. If they want to help those who might soon go hungry, these champions of the proletaria should stow away their leaflets and their closed conferences and help their responsible leaders pressure the government into reorganizing and diverting its Defense Department purchases into Detroit so there can be purchasing once more in the food shops, the clothing stores and the movie box offices, too.

Men live by more than bread alone, but propaganda alone will starve him.

Little Capitalists

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK

I WENT down to Wall Street the other day to see how a young Phi Beta Kappa there is doing in his campaign to make America a land of little capitalists.

He is doing right well.

"The idea of not apologizing for capitalism has made quite a hit," said George Keith Funston.

George, who is 41 and tall enough to play basketball for Kentucky University, is the new chief shepherd of the bulls and bears of the financial district. He recently gave up the presidency of little Trinity College to become president of the big New York Stock Exchange.

Hal Boyle

This $100,000-a-year post automatically makes Funston a middle-class capitalist himself at least. But he has a program to manufacture more American capitalists by the millions, and he believes that is the way to turn back communism and socialism.

HIS IDEA IS to broaden the base of industrial ownership by getting small investors to buy shares of common stock.

"People are for what they have a vested interest in," he said. "They follow their pocketbooks.

"If a man buys a share of stock, whether that stock goes up or down, he will still remain a capitalist."

Funston thinks nobody should buy stock unless he can afford to take a risk, but that anyone with an income who has provided against emergencies can afford to take the risk of stock investment.

How many stockholders are there in America? No one knows for sure.

"We estimate about 15,000,000," he said, "but we are taking a census now to find out more exactly.

"I think it will show, however, that it is Main Street, not Wall Street, that owns American industry."

FUNSTON BELIEVES there should be at least 30,000,000 stockholders in America, and that such a number would have a tremendous effect in bolstering faith in capitalism.

"We might have to have a country where nearly everyone was prosperous," he said. "That's a big order—but I think it's possible."

One of the big difficulties he has found is convincing small investors that stockbrokers are not interested only in people who come in waving a handful of $1,000 bills.

"We're trying to break that feeling down," he said, "and get them to realize that brokers are interested in small business as well as big business."

He hasn't found too much difficulty in adjusting himself to the change from the academic cloister to the hurly-burly of the stock exchange.

"YOU STILL DEAL with people," he remarked, and then added, smiling:

"One of my biggest problems is to explain to people that I really don't know myself what is going to happen next on the stock market. Nobody knows."

On that point he has to worry as much as anybody else. He's an investor, too.

BRIG. GEN F. S. BOWEN, JR.

Meet the Man Who May Lead Paratroopers

SUPREME ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Europe, Nov. 15—(AP)—Likeliest nominee for boss of any paratroop unit the Allied Armies may form in Europe is a tough infantryman who made two behind-the-lines drops in Korea and then fractured his back practicing for a third.

Brig. Gen. Frank S. Bowen, Jr., says "paratrooping is my business. It's the greatest kind of thrill a man can have."

Right now Gen. Bowen is out of business as a paratrooper, but very busy as deputy chief of the plans, policy and operations staff in Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's Supreme Headquarters Allied Powers in Europe (SHAPE).

Under his much decorated Army tunic Bowen still wears a bulging plaster cast that covers his fractured back.

And under the urgent schedule of work he is now doing he still nurtures the hope that SHAPE will decide to have a paratroop battalion and that he will be picked to command it.

"I like working with men in the paratroops," he says. "They are the best-trained men in any army, and they have a spirit for their duties that makes it easy to command them. Besides I like it myself."

Born in Army Family

Gen. Bowen counts San Francisco his home town because his mother lives there now, but he was born into an Army family in the Philippines 46 years ago. He has lived most of his life in Army camps, and plans the same sort of career for his son, now a San Francisco high school student.

Bowen was a colonel when he made his first combat drop in Korea. He "hit the silk" with 3,700 men at Sukchon, north of Pyongyang. It was when the United Nations forces were pressing north of the 38th parallel, and the paratroopers' mission was to cut off the Red retreat.

It succeeded so well that Bowen was made a brigadier on the spot, but didn't learn of it for about four days because he was fighting his way out of encirclement.

How He Broke Back

A short time later he dropped with about the same number of troops at Munsan, near where the U.N. and Communist chiefs have since been having truce talks, but which at the time was well inside the Red lines.

After that Bowen and his paratroopers were given a rest, but made practice jumps just to stay keen. On one of these, Bowen was about ten feet off the ground when a gust of wind flipped him over and he landed on his back and ended up in a fracture cast.

Red Cross Directors Hear Reports

Two New Members, Kraner, Holliday, Welcomed to Board

Recruitment for the volunteer services was emphasized, reports given and two new board members welcomed when the board of directors of the Marion County Chapter of the American Red Cross held its monthly meeting Wednesday at Hotel Harding.

Welcomed as new members were Robert Kraner, who is chairman of the blood program and C. C. Holliday who will serve as treasurer. Mr. Holliday succeeds William Anderson.

In discussing the need for more personnel in the volunteer services, Ivan Barnhart, county chairman, noted that the civilian defense program is coming into the picture on a larger scale and the need for civilian preparedness is becoming greater. Miss Lillian Plack, executive secretary, added her plea to that of Mr. Barnhart.

The first meeting for volunteers will be held at 4 p.m. Monday in the chapter office. Charlton Myers will give a talk on the work of the Red Cross services.

Bloodmobile Visits

Announcement was made of the visit of the Red Cross Bloodmobile Friday, and also on Nov. 28. On the latter date the unit will be at the Marion Engineer Depot.

Mrs. Marvin Brown, Junior Red Cross chairman, gave a report of the junior work and guests of the board were Patty Holliday, a sophomore at Harding High School and Ruth Burton, senior at Pleasant High School. The juniors told of activities at Camp Limberlost, near LaGrange, Ind., which they attended last summer under the auspices of the local chapter. Ruth is president and Patty vice president of the Junior Chapter.

As chairman, Mrs. Brown has visited all but two of the schools in Marion city and county in the interest of the work. It was reported 30 "Christmas on the High Seas" boxes had been forwarded for service men at Christmas time. Others will be sent when packed.

Work Increases

Work in the Home Service department has increased with the closing of the local Veterans Administration office here last September.

Volunteer services reports were as follows: administrative, two persons gave 19 hours during the month of October; canteen, 22 persons gave 95 hours at Bloodmobile center; Gray Ladies, seven women served 38 hours at City Hospital and at Blood center; motor service, two persons gave 17 hours serving blood center; social welfare aide, three persons gave 106 hours assisting in Home Service; staff aide, 21 persons gave 163 hours at visitor's desk, City Hospital, at Bloodmobile Unit headquarters and chapter office, and two served six hours at City Hospital; volunteer nurse's aide, five persons gave 22 hours at blood center.

Grandparents Get Custody of 11 Orphaned in Crash

PONTIAC, Mich., Nov. 15 —(AP)—Charles Moss, 73 and his wife, Stella, 68, shouldered the responsibility today of taking care of their 11 orphaned grandchildren.

"I am sure it will work out all right," said Mrs. Moss. "We will have plenty of help from relatives and friends."

The 11 children, sons and daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Moore, were orphaned when their parents were killed in an automobile crash Saturday. Four teen-agers in the second car also were killed.

The elderly grandparents will close their own home in neighboring Royal Oak and move to the nine-room home in nearby Leonard that the Moores obtained just six weeks before their deaths.

"It was the first place we ever had that was big enough for all of us," said Gerald, 15, the oldest child.

The children were placed in care of their maternal grandparents by Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore yesterday.

John Brown was hanged at Charleston, West Virginia on Dec. 2, 1859.

Promises To Make Files Available

Tax Investigators Look For Help From Truman

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15—(AP)—House investigators of scandals in the federal tax gathering system looked for a presidential order today to give them a powerful new probing tool.

Rep. King (D-Calif) announced yesterday he had President Truman's assurance — by telephone from Key West, Fla.—that a directive would be forthcoming at once to give the investigators access to Justice Department files on tax fraud prosecutions.

King, chairman of the investigating ways and means subcommittee, said he took the issue directly to the President after "repeated delays" by the department in making the files available. He has said his group wants to know the reasons for failure to prosecute some big tax fraud cases worked up by the Internal Revenue Bureau.

Many Fired

More than a score of Internal Revenue Department employes, including six regional collectors, have been suspended or fired since the committee began its inquiry. Two former collectors have been indicted.

Recently the investigation has turned to the tax division of the Department of Justice, headed by Assistant Attorney General Theron Lamar Caudle. He seemed likely to be summoned as a chief witness in hearings set for next week—possibly Tuesday. Caudle's own financial records and income tax returns are already under subcommittee scrutiny.

King said yesterday that Mr. Truman had promised him the full cooperation" of the Justice Department in continuing the probe. A memorandum detailing the committee's efforts to obtain a look at the department's files was airmailed to Mr Truman last night following King's telephone call.

At Key West, Presidential Secretary Joseph Short said Mr. Truman had talked with King yesterday, and added: "there will be further communication between them and the President may have something to say later."

Other Developments

Meanwhile these additional developments came to light:

1. An independent "Comprehensive survey" of the alcohol tax unit was ordered by Internal Revenue Commissioner John B. Dunlap. He coupled this with a recommendation that the unit's licensing and regulatory control over the liquor industry be transferred outside the treasury department.

2. A lowering of secrecy barriers which for years have hidden federal tax collection and enforcement operations was in prospect. Commissioner Dunlap told news men he had recommended to Mr. Truman and Secretary of the Treasury Snyder the creation of a special committee, including editors, to study what he termed "too much secrecy" in the Internal Revenue Bureau.

3. Hearings on irregularities in the San Francisco revenue collector's office were set tentatively for the first two weeks of December—or, if the Christmas holidays interfere, then the first two weeks of January.

DAVIES PAINTING SOLD

NEW YORK, Nov. 15—(AP)—Eighty-eight paintings belonging to Marion Davies, former film star and friend of the late publisher William Randolph Hearst, were sold at auction last night for $62,910. Miss Davies was married Oct. 31 to Horace Gates Brown, a sea captain.

Rudolph Wurlitzer founded his famous music hose in Cincinnati in 1856.

WESLEY CIRCLE MEETS

Mrs. Don Cox and Mrs. D. J. Finley assisted Mrs. Marvin Evans when she entertained Circle Five of the Wesley Methodist Church at her home on Olney Ave., recently. Mrs. Cloy Hartshorn led devotions. Set Up Check Stations In Dam Area

Three check stations in the Delaware dam area have been set up to control hunting. The rabbit and pheasant season opened today.

Station No. 1 will be located on Route 229, one mile east of Norton. It will be open every day of the week through Jan. 1. This station will be open for waterfowl hunting control.

Station No. 2 will be located one mile east of Inskeep Corners, eight miles north of Delaware on U.S. Route 23. This station will be open during pheasant season, Nov. 15, 16, 17, 22, 23, and 24.

Station No. 3 will be located on Horseshoe Rd., east of the reservoir at the dead end of the road made when the road was relocated. This station will be open only during pheasant season.

All hunters are required to check in at a station before beginning and at the end of the hunt, Rodney Swagler, game production foreman with the Ohio Department of Wildlife, reported. There is to be no charge for the check.

Shooting hours will be from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays only. Coon hunters and trappers will not be required to check in, Swagler said.

New Dial System At Delaware

Special to The Star

DELAWARE, Nov. 15—Delaware Mayor Ansel Lockhart made the first phone call at midnight Tuesday in the new telephone exchange which has been installed in that city.

One of the most noticeable things about the new equipment, Northern Ohio Telephone Co. officials report, is the dial tone and new tones used in busy signals, and a stronger ring.

The phone company expansion program will be completed in January with the installation of three new long distance operator boards. It will make a total of 11 positions on the long distance board.

The new equipment will make inter-toll dialing possible, phone company officials pointed out. Delaware operators will be able to dial numbers in Chicago, Cleveland, Columbus, New York and St. Louis directly.

Moves To "Scotch" Rumors

Pentagon Denies Arms Aid To Europe Lagging

By ELTON C. FAY
AP Military Affairs Reporter

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15—(AP)—The Pentagon, annoyed by talk that arms aid to the Western European nations is lagging, gave out some item-by-item figures to show what has been done.

Whether by coincidence or otherwise, a news conference by Gen. George L. Olmstead, director of military assistance, yesterday followed a series of recent developments, including:

1. Press dipatches from Paris saying the French are concerned over slow delivery of arms aid.

2. The recent visit of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, supreme commander of western European forces, to discuss with Washington officials an increased tempo in equipping his forces.

3. A Paris meeting of Secretary of State Acheson, Secretary of Defense Lovett and W. Averell Harriman, director of the Mutual Security Agency to discuss the arms aid problem.

France Is Example

Gen. Olmstead used France as example of how the United States is keeping generally abreast of its arms aid commitments. He said that:

The allocation of tanks for France was 2,738 and that deliveries to date total 2,148. Out of an allocation of 847 105-millimeter guns, 658 have been delivered. However, plane deliveries have been somewhat slower. France has been assigned 401 F-84 Thunderjet fighter planes of a late model. These are just beginning to come off the prodpuction line. Before the end of this year, the first 10 will have been delivered and all of the allocation will be in French hands in 1952. An assignment of 46 F-84s of earlier model has been fulfilled.

Olmstead said that equipment originally allocated to equip an undisclosed number of Western European division would be delivered to the member nations by next spring, several months ahead of the planning date first set.

Eisenhower View

In his public comments while here, Eisenhower did not say he believed there was an actual lag in arms deliveries to Europe. Those familiar with the series of conferences he held at the White House and Pentagon said the point emphasized was that there must be a speed-up beyond the present schedule — that instead of a slower program to outfit more divisions a drive should be made to make battle-ready and fully-equipped up to 30 divisions by next summer.

Someone Mention Subsidies?

MILLIONS of dollars in government "subsidies" are paid to favored corporations and individuals every year, yet no government official claims to know exactly what they cost Uncle Sam.

At one time the President's Bureau of the Budget specifically labled certain payments as subsidies. Today only payments to private ship lines are so tagged. The other payments are still going on, though the sum paid out is dropping, according to a survey by Congressional Quarterly.

Congressmen refer to a number of special payments as subsidies, but at the same time no congressional group will hazard an exact definition of the word.

Often recognized as subsidies on Capitol Hill are special outlays for airlines, shipping lines, farmers, mining companies and commercial mail users.

When the Bureau of the Budget was defining the word, it calculated that nearly $15,000,000,000 was spent in subsidy aid to farmers, shipping companies and miners in the years 1934 to 1948. Benefits to airlines and commercial mail users would have made a $17,000,000,000 total.

These old subsidy payments are now lumped—with other expenditures—into a category described by the Bureau of the Budget as "yielding benefits over a period longer than the fiscal year." The new category also includes veterans benefits, payments to home owners, etc., which are not ordinarily thought of as subsidies.

THE COSTS of some of the programs which have been called subsidies at one time or another were, in fiscal year 1950 (the latest year available): Merchant Marine support, $63,000,000; excess mail payments to airlines, $85,000,000; payments to farmers for price support, $247,000,000; payments to sugar growers, $59,000,000.

Some groups would include as subsidies such outlays as the entire postoffice deficit of $521,000,000, which provided cheaper postal service for direct mail advertisers, newspapers, magazines, etc.; soil conservation and water use payments to individuals, $230,000,000; air and sea navigation aids, $185,000,000, and maintenance and operation of river and harbor works, $57,000,000.

One of the major subsidies, price support payments to farmers, is falling off this year, according to preliminary figures. Estimated cost of the program for fiscal 1951 was $345,000,000. But in the first month of fiscal 1952 (July 1951), the program cost only $7,100,000 — indicating the possibility of a drop in farm subsidies to less than $100,000,000 this fiscal year. These payments are made to producers of eggs, peanuts, etc.

Government expenditures for cheaper mail service also will drop. Congress approved a postal rate increase which would wipe out $117,000,000 of the annual deficit. A bill to increase Merchant Marine subsidies cleared the Senate, but not the House.

Many congressmen have long wanted to know exactly how much is spent in subsidies. The joint committee on reduction of non-essential federal expenditures, under Senator Harry F. Byrd of Virginia, has studied the problem for two years but has not come out with a definition of the term.

THE SENATE has passed a bill to separate subsidy pay to the air lines from "fair cost" postal payments. The President's "Brannan Plan" to earmark subsidy payments to farmers has had no action in the 82nd Congress.

Many farm and business groups and individuals shrink from the word "subsidy." Backers of the metals-support program now pending in a Senate bill, for example, say that such government aid to mine operators is not a subsidy, but merely a cost-balancing program intended to increase the supply of scarce metals by stimulating production in low-grade, high-cost mines.

Farm groups and the Department of Agriculture say soil-conservation payments are not subsidies. Spokesmen for newspapers and magazines have told Congress that low postal rates for their publications stimulate circulation and contribute greatly to general business health.

Railroads claim truckers are subsidized by public road construction and maintenance, but the trucking industry says it pays adequate "users' taxes."

Truman Backs Govt. Workers

KEY WEST, Fla., Nov. 15—(AP)—President Truman defended the honesty today of more than 95 per cent of government employes, but said any found doing wrong will have to take the consequences.

The President told a news conference that he had asked Chairman King (D-Calif) of a committee investigating tax collections to send a memorandum, but said he had not promised King what action he will take on King's request to open Justice Department files on tax fraud prosecutions to the committee. He said he is awaiting that memorandum before acting.

At the same time he said he wanted to do everything to see that justice is done and that anybody at fault in that case will have to take the consequences.

GIVES 168 PINTS. Suffering from a rare blood disease, polysthemia vera, which manufactures more blood than needed, R. H. Horton, 60, of Royston, Ga., believes he's set a record for blood donations. He has given 168 pints.

LOT OF CLOTH

BOSTON—(UP)— During its century of operations, the Pepperell Manufacturing Co. estimates that it has woven more than 7,000,000,000 yards of cloth—enough to wind around the earth 160 times.

Minister's Son Charged With Bank Robbery

"Hot Rod" Driver Also Held After Holdup Near Lima

TOLEDO, O., Nov. 15—(AP)—The son of a minister and a "hot rod" driving enthusiast were locked in jail today for holding up the farmers bank at Elida, O. on Oct. 17. The FBI said the $3,200 robbery now has been solved.

The prisoners were identified as:

Mitchell K. Rigel, 22, whose father, now dead, founded the Pilgrim Holiness Church in Lima. The FBI says Rigel also is in trouble on bad check and auto theft charges.

James C. Breese, 27, also of Lima, father of four children and son of Clarence Breese, for many years the clerk of common pleas court in Allen County. Young Breese drove one of his fast cars from the holdup.

Three Robbers

There were three robbers in the Elida robbery. A third man, William D. Metzger, of Lima, is in jail under the same charge. He pleaded innocent last Saturday before U. S. Commissioner John J. Barone.

Rigel and Breese pleaded guilty before Barone yesterday.

Barone was particularly severe with Rigel. He learned Rigel had been freed under $1,500 bond on a car theft charge in Chattanooga, Tenn. and had been put on probation in Lima after being caugh writing a worthless check.

"This court," said Barone, "will certainly see to it that your bond is such that you won't be a menace to society as long as you are in its jurisdiction."

He set bond of $25,000 for Rigel and the same for Breese.

Stock Car Driver

Breese has quite a reputation as a driver of souped up stock cars, according to the FBI. He won 19 out of 30 feature races in recent months at the Allentown race track. The bank is only two miles from the track.

Breese and Rigel said they walked into the bank wearing flesh - colored rubber masks, drove Cashier Donald Furry and his assistant Lyla Davidson, into a vault at gun point and picked up money from cash drawers.

Furry said he talked them out of stealing $20,000 from the bank vault with a false claim that it was protected by a time clock.

4,075 To Get Savings Club Checks Soon

Approximately 4,075 Marionites will receive checks totaling some $267,500 from Christmas savings clubs at Marion's three banks and the Home Federal Savings and Loan and Marion Federal Savings and Loan Companies during the next two weeks.

Checks from the two savings and loan firms will be mailed so that they will be received by the club members on the day following Thanksgiving. The three banks will mail the checks on Nov. 30 to give mail delivery on Dec. 1. Final payments on the clubs are being accepted this week.

All five institutions reported an increase over last year's totals both in the number of subscribers and the totals saved.

The programs at the Marion banks are part of a nationwide plan devised as one method of saving money for additional expenses at Christmas time. More than 6,200 banking institutions throughout the country take part annually. Approximately $952 million will be distributed to club members.

Amerman

reviewed trial testimony, and the record of clemency hearings before the State Pardon and Parole Commission. He's consulted with his cabinet and secretaries.

Amerman yesterday ordered—for his last meal—hamburger sandwiches, a cola drink and coffee. Warden Ralph Alvis of Ohio Penitentiary said it was the lightest meal he has seen in 25 executions.

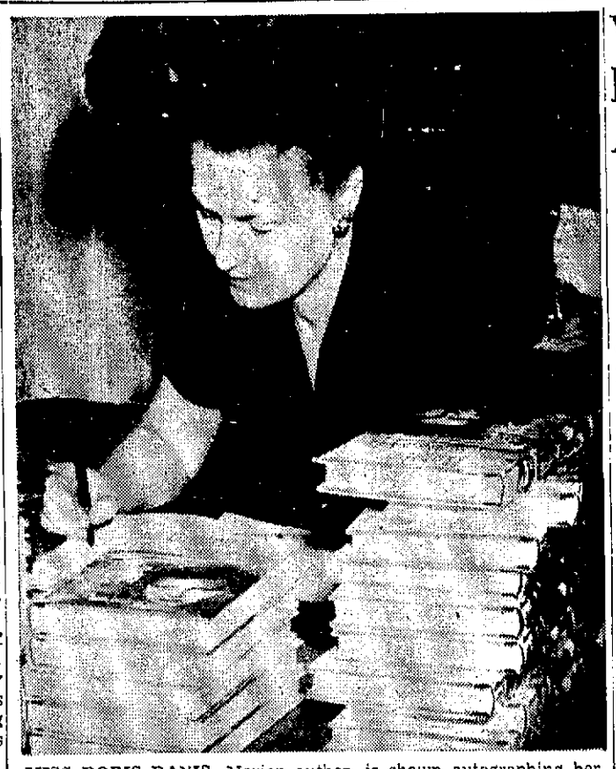
Killinger asked for fried rabbit, mashed potatoes, banana cream pie, bread, butter, and black coffee.

Warden Alvis said both men continue as model prisoners in death row. He said Amerman is "close-mouthed and drawn into a shell," but Killinger is talkative.

Both were to be baptized today by Rev. Ray Khaustad of Medina, a Seventh Day Adventist. Killinger has said he wants to become an evangelist if his life is spared.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Mast of Medina, parents of the murder victim, asked Gov. Lausche to spare Killinger's life.

But Randi Mast, 24, who has moved to New Jersey, wrote the governor to refuse clemency to both men. She said they showed her husband no mercy.



MISS DORIS DAVIS, Marion author, is shown autographing her first novel, "The Women of Champion City," which went on sale today in the city's two local book shops, the Hall-Beck Equipment Co. and Wiant's Bookstore. Autographed copies of the novel are on sale at both stores. Three years of writing and revising have gone into the novel which has Florida as its setting. The time is the World War II year, 1945.

Miss Doris Davis Writes Book

Marion Woman's First Novel Goes On Sale

By EDNA S. DUTTON

"The Women of Champion City," a first novel by a Marion woman, went on sale today in local bookstores. The author, Miss Doris Davis, makes her home on Cambridge Ave. here.

Women whose husbands are away at war, soldiers with time hanging heavily on their hands, and Nadine, the bewildered wife who leaves her home to forget the husband who has deserted her, make up the cast in the 246-page novel. The setting is Florida and the time the winter of 1945.

The story of Cassandra Bickham, who runs a tourist court hotel, and Nadine, and ultimately Steven the husband, touch a great many other people: Delaney, the 4-F clerk at the "Kumquat May," the horrifying Mrs. Flugleman and Raydella Rose Maygrew, guests at the tourist court; Randall Peters, a GI returned from the Pacific campaign who fell in love with Nadine; a lieutenant from Tampa, and many others.

Early Settlers

A sixth-generation Ohioan, the author's farmer ancestors were among the first settlers, travelling from Massachusetts, lower eastern Pennsylvania, upper New York; Kentucky and Virginia.

She is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Kay Davis. She makes her home with a brother, William K. Davis, Marion attorney.

At 17, Miss Davis submitted her first story to a magazine. It was promptly refused by an editor who cautioned her to "double space next time." At 21 she left home for Chicago and did legal secretarial work for 13 years. Off and on, she wrote short stories and collected more of what she calls "strange letters" from editors.

Studied at Night School

When she returned to Marion a few years ago, Doris Davis felt she had nothing to show for 21 years but a few dog-eared manuscripts. In the years between, she had been graduated from Harding High School, studied at the Northwestern night school and the University of Chicago's night school, vacationed in the west, and in New York, paid a couple of visits to Ohio, lived in Boston for a year where she studied the modern novel, and spent another period of time in Florida where she wrote a 20,000 word novel about Ohio which was never published.

Back in Marion again, she decided to settle down and get another job. After that was attended to, she wrote "The Women of Champion City" which was accepted for publication by William Sloane Associates, Inc. Now she feels her old enemies, the editors, are on her side.

She now devotes all her time to writing.

A date for arraignment on the charges will be set by Judge Ahl after the bill of particulars is prepared by the grand jury and given the defendants.

Motions Overruled

Other motions filed by the defendants were overruled by Judge Ahl.

They include a demurrer filed by Dinkel and his wife, former home matron, on a torture indictment. The Dinkels charged the indictment failed to show a crime had been committed.

A motion on the indictment against Dinkel, which charged he certified fraudulant bills, he quashed on the grounds it was defective.

A motion for a bill of particulars in the indictment of Commissioner Sargel charging he had an interest in a county contract while being a public official.

The indictments were returned Nov. 2. The defendants were freed on bonds totaling $11,200.

AIDS POLIO DRIVE. Justice William O. Douglas of the U. S. Supreme Court poses with Sherryll Hallberg, 4, a polio victim, after he was made honorary chairman of New York's Mothers' March on Polio. The judge, who suffered from infantile paralysis when a child, appealed for 200,000 mothers in the city to volunteer for two hours' work in the annual March of Dimes campaign.

the long-secret atrocities would have any effect on the negotiations.

Throughout Thursday's three-hour and 20 minute session the Reds continued to insist that a cease-fire line be fixed before negotiators move on to other armistice terms. U. N. command negotiators reiterated that any line drawn now would result in a de facto cease-fire and permit the Reds to stall on other agenda problems.

Rain Slows Down Fighting in Korea

SEOUL, Korea, Nov. 15—(AP)—Cold, drizzling rain bogged down the Korean war today.

The U. S. Eighth Army reported the only action along the muddy front was a small see-saw night battle for advance Allied positions. That was fought northwest of Yanggu on the eastern front.

Attacking Reds captured the outposts but were quickly routed by a counterattack, the evening communique said. United Nations infantrymen chased the Reds back to their own lines.

SERVICE DISCONTINUED

HARRISBURG, Ill. —(UP)— Police announced that no longer will they switch coins from auto windshields to parking meters for motorists. They gave two reasons —"skidrow" characters were getting to the coins first and some of the motorists skipped making the initial payment when they parked.

TINIEST STEEPLE

DAVISVILLE, R. I. — (UP) — Seabees claim their new 80-seat chapel here has the tiniest steeple. It's just five feet high.

Wrecked U.S. Plane Found, All 36 Dead

French Rescue Team On Skis Reaches Mountain Crash Scene

CHAMBON-SUR-LAC, France, Nov. 15—(AP)—Rescue crews today found the shattered snow-crusted wreckage of a missing U. S. Air Force transport plane 5,000 feet up a mountain slope in southern France. All aboard were dead.

American and French rescuers began bringing the battered, burned bodies of the 36 passengers and crewmen—all U.S. military personnel—down the side of the mountain where the twin-engined Flying Box Car crashed Tuesday.

Rescue teams who fought their way up the snow and ice encrusted slope 250 miles south of Paris said most of the fire-scarred bodies were battered to bits by the crash.

Partially Burned

The plane itself appeared to be in one piece, with only small bits of wreckage scattered over an area of some 80 square yards. Its two engines had buried themselves into the snow-crusted soil and the fuselage apparently had burst open. Half the twin tail assembly was burned, but the other part was intact.

A team of French soldiers first sighted the wreckage just after dawn. They had trekked afoot and on skis all night, through a three-foot snow layer, to reach the crash scene. Later they were joined by 10 U. S. Air Force rescue workers.

The plane disappeared Tuesday on a routine flight from Frankfurt to Bordeaux with 29 airmen, a U. S. soldier and six crewmen aboard. It crashed into a peak in the Mont Dore group some 20 miles south of Clermont Ferrand.

Weather Bad

Today the plane lay glistening in the sunlight, a few feet below the opening of a defile toward which the pilot apparently had headed. Chambon residents said the weather on Tuesday at the time of the crash was foggy, with visibility very limited.

Since the plane's disappearance parties had scoured snow-covered mountains and valleys over a broad expanse of France and an air armada had flown unceasingly to try to locate the wreckage.

Aerial search for the missing craft had been hampered for the past two days by icing of the planes and dense fog which blanketed southwestern France. The weather cleared today, however.

EGYPT DEFIANT

CAIRO, Nov. 15—(AP)—King Farouk—in a throne speech written by the Wafdist government—declared today that Egypt will not yield in the Anglo-Egyptian dispute "to any pressure or coercion." The speech—read to parliament by Prime Minister Mustapha El Nahas Pasha as the king sat listening—said the world can see Egypt "is resolved to recover her full rights and redeem her full sovereignty."

Judge Fines Self For Drunk Driving

LEMOORE, Cal., Nov. 15—(INS)—Lemoore City Judge W. W. W. Sheahan is not one to show partiality. That is why he fined himself $200 for drunk driving.

The Judge signed the complaint and levied the same fine he imposes on other drunk drivers.

Judge Sheahan told newsmen today he expects no further trouble from himself.

Worst Case In Last Century, Truman Says

KEY WEST, Fla., Nov. 15—(AP)—President Truman today condemned the murder of American prisoners by Chinese Communists as the most uncivilized thing that has happened in the last century.

Mr. Truman voiced this indictment at a Winter White House news conference in which he declared his views that the United Nations rather than "Big Four" conferences should settle international disputes.

The President declared that he has not been told officially of reports of charges of the murder of 5,400 or more American prisoners but he added it's a horrible thing.

No facts have reached him officially yet, he continued, but if true, it is the most uncivilized thing that has happened in the last century.

But he replied with a firm no comment to a question whether this brought closer the day when we might use the atomic bomb in Korea.

The President said he still held out hope that the Russian government ultimately would accept the American-French-British proposal for progressive disarmament despite the fact that he has received no official Russian reaction.

Report Causes Furor In Washington

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15—(AP)—Shocked government officials today were unable to add anything—even a word of hope to home folk—to an Eighth Army report from Korea that 5,790 U. S. prisoners have been slain by the Communists.

Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway's supreme U.N. command in the Far East has been asked for clarification. But until this is received, the Department of Defense stated frankly that it has no information or insufficient evidence to justify death notices for any of the 10,836 Americans currently listed as missing in action or the 174 reported prisoners of war.

Rep. Cole (R-NY) commented that if the reports prove true, "the Communists should be punished immediately by the use of atomic weapons."

Officials here were startled by the Eighth Army's report from Pusan. They asked General Ridgway why the information was given to the press by a subordinate field command, before it was reported to the U. S. government and to the United Nations.

Handled Differently

The Army recalled Gen. Douglas MacArthur's handling of similar, but smaller scaled atrocity cases earlier in the Korean campaign. In each authenticated case, they pointed out, the since ousted supreme commander reported the facts to the United Nations and went on record with a statement holding the enemy high command responsible.

Defense and State Department officials were unable to cite any record that the mass slayings reported by the Eighth Army had been conveyed previously to higher authority.

The Army's casualty branch began receiving inquiries from families and congressmen within an hour of the early radio accounts of the atrocities. The flow of telephone calls and telegrams increased all afternoon.

Anticipating a mounting volume of inquiries, Army casualty officers gathered an emergency staff to handle messages from all parts of the country.

The announced total of U. S. battle casualties in Korea stands at 99,226, of which 16,805 are combat deaths. If the massacre reports are confirmed, the death toll will jump to 22,305, and the combined number of 11,010 missing and captured will drop to 5,510.

Reflect Revision

The Defense Department's weekly summaries of battle casualties reflect the continuing revision of figures for missing and captured Americans. Since the start of the campaign 12,582 have been listed as missing. This total has been reduced by 1,389 men who have since returned to the American lines and 183 now known to have been killed in action. A few of those who returned to U. N. lines were released by the enemy, usually just before the start of a Red offensive, apparently for propaganda purposes to induce other Americans to surrender.

The U.N. command has been unable to account for the great mass of the missing, because the Reds have steadfastly refused to disclose the number they hold or to permit neutral officials or the International Red Cross to check on the numbers or treatment of their captives.

The Red Koreans reported about 100 prisoners during the early months of the fighting. The small fraction of the missing now officially listed as prisoners has been pieced together by weighing enemy propaganda broadcasts against a trickle of letters received by American families from their men.

Baruch Raps Administration 'Incompetence'

STAMFORD, Conn., Nov. 15—(AP)—"Incompetence, procrastination and the lack of courage on the part of our present government is the cause of our troubled conditions today," said Bernard M. Baruch.

The statement came in response to a question during a "park bench chat" with ex-servicemen and their wives here last night.

Throughout more than an hour of questioning, the elder statesman stressed what he termed the lack of courage and competence of the present administration to solve the many problems placed before it.

"Do you have a specific cure for this?" Baruch was asked.

"Remember on election day," he answered.

"Do you think Gen. Eisenhower would provide the dynamic leadership we so definitely need today?

Baruch arose from a park bench on which he had been sitting, asserting:

"I'll rise to that one. I have yet in my life to make a political statement and I don't want to make one now. I have the highest opinion of Gen. Eisenhower as a soldier, as a citizen, as a great civilian, a great educator and a statesman as well as a man devoted to the highest ideals of his country. I can't say more than that and I won't say less."

Asked his opinion about the use of the atomic bomb in the Korean conflict Baruch said:

"I believe they have perfected an atomic weapon which can now wipe out armies rather than destroy cities. I say that the longer we delay action of a definite and decisive nature, the worse off we are going to be."

CIO Opens Steel Wage Boost Drive

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Nov. 15—(AP)—The CIO launched a drive today to boost wages in the steel industry.

Philip Murray, president of the CIO and head of the 1,000,000 member steelworkers union, assembled his steel wage-policy committee to map new contract demands.

The situation held the possibility of an eventual steel industry strike which could throttle output of the metal most needed to outmuscle Soviet Russia.

The steel union has only four or five cents hourly coming under the wage stabilization Board's present formula.

Murray said workers in steel and other industries have been left behind the "eight ball" in the economic scramble and they should get more money.

REPORTS TO CHAMBER

COLUMBUS, Nov. 15—(AP)—Business and business men must again become leaders of political opinion, says C. I. Weaver, president of the Ohio Chamber of Commerce. Weaver, in his annual report to the membership of the organization, holding its annual meeting here, said business must take the initiative in restoring integrity in public life.

Marysville Representative Calls For Highway Probe

COLUMBUS, Nov. 15—(INS)—A ranking member of the Ohio General Assembly declared last night that he is "convinced" of the necessity for a "complete investigation of the State Highway Department."

State Rep. Clifton L. Caryl of Marysville, scored the "waste" in the discarding plans when each new administration takes office.

Caryl, addressing the Capital City Young Republican Club in Columbus, said:

"Such waste in this respect is inexcusable regardless of the party in power."

In respect to the failure of U. S. Route 36 in Tuscarawas County two months ago, Caryl said he "personally" determined that the highway director got exactly the road he ordered . . ."

The state law-maker declared that "when the road crumbled 15 minutes after it was opened" the highway director "started looking around for a goat'."

Caryl said flatly the failure "was strictly the fault of the department and a system that needs to be investigated."

He concluded that he would be opposed to further taxes for "much-needed highways" until we know how the money will be spent."

Call Red Cross To Make Blood Donor Pledges

Marion residents pledging to volunteer blood in the nationwide Red Cross radio marathon which got under way at 10 a.m. today, are asked to place their pledges with the local chapter by calling the office 2-1653 until 5 p.m. and the following numbers after that hour: 2-1840 or 2-8266.

The Columbia Broadcasting System and its affiliated stations are carrying the marathon in an effort to recruit pledges for the Blood Donor program to provide needed blood for the fighting men in Korea and for civilian use.

In addition to the appeals broadcast during the marathon every network show will close with a 50-second appeal by Arthur Godfrey.

Warren In G.O.P. Race

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Nov. 15—(AP)—Gov. Earl Warren may switch from his 1948 strategy and enter Republican primaries in a few select states in his quest for the presidential nomination.

A Warren intimate dropped that hint today. He added, however, the governor has no definite plans and may not decide for some time.

Warren announced his 1952 candidacy yesterday with a call for party unity. He campaigned for the nomination only in California in 1946. He became Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's running mate.

Now he is considering going into other states, particularly in the Far West, seeking enough convention pledges to be regarded as more than a dark horse or compromise candidate.

Sen. Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio), only other avowed candidate, has predicted he will be nominated on the first ballot.

Trustees Of Lakeside Assoc. Meet

Toledo District Head Elected President; Dr. Busler Re-elected

More than 50 members of the Lakeside Association board of trustees representing two Methodist Conferences met in Marion Wednesday for business including election of officers.

Dr. John R. Cheney, superintendent of the Toledo District, Ohio Conference, was elected president. He takes the place of Dr. Russell J. Humbert, former pastor of Trinity Methodist Church at Youngstown, Northeast Ohio Conference, who is now president of DePauw University, Methodist School at Greencastle, Ind.

Other officers were re-elected, including E. S. Mason of Cincinnati, vice president; K. E. Miller of Lakeside, secretary; Earl Willson of Port Clinton, treasurer; Dr. H. G. Thompson, Lakeside manager; and Dr. V. E. Busler of Marion, pastor of the host church, program chairman.

Land to the east of the village of Lakeside will be purchased to extend the area of the campgrounds, it was revealed. Epworth Church groups will be on the Lakeside program July 6, first Sunday following the official opening of the resort season there July 4. The choir will sing at the morning service in Memorial Auditorium, and in the evening, the cast which presented in Marion recently "One Foot in Heaven" will give a performance of the play there.

Women of the host church served a turkey dinner at noon. Mrs. W. E. Miley was chairman of the committee. Morning and afternoon sessions were held by the visiting group.

Postal Cards To Cost 2 Cents After Jan. 1

Postal cards will cost two cents each, rather than a penny, after Jan. 1, Homer Cole, Marion postmaster, reported today. There will be an additional charge of ten percent if the purchaser buys 50 or more cards.

This will increase the price of a lot of 50 post cards to $1.10, Mr. Cole said. The price increase in large lots is to help cover the cost of handling the larger quantities of cards.

The first-day sale of the new 2-cent postal cards will be made in New York Friday in connection with the National Postage Stamp Show of the American Stamp Dealers' Association, Cole said.

said. This sale will include only a limited number of cards for distribution to stamp collectors.

Elks Polack Circus Performer Killed In High Wire Fall

Evy Trosti, 17-year-old circus acrobat with "The Great Arturos" high wire team, died yesterday after falling 60 feet from a high wire during a performance of Polack Bros. Circus in Baltimore, Md. She appeared in Marion Sept. 7 and 8 when the circus was sponsored by B.P.O. Elks at the Memorial Coliseum.

An Associated Press report from Baltimore said she dropped to her death during an afternoon performance before 7,500 persons in the Fifth Regiment Armory, as she was performing a Spanish dance with a balance pole. Her father, "The Great Arturo," and her cousin, Eric, were on the high platform when she fell. The Arturos do their acrobatic stunts without a net.

She was conscious on arrival at Maryland General Hospital, but died a half-hour later. She was to have returned to Tampa, Fla., to re-enter school this weekend. She had been with the act three years.

Among certain South African native tribes a young man must not only earn his bride by working as a servant for her father but is also required to pay his father-in-law for each of his own children.

LaRue PTA Plans Home Talent Show

Community Event Set for January On Season's Program

Special to The Star

LARUE, Nov. 15 — At the monthly meeting of the Parent Teacher's Association Monday night at the high school auditorium plans were made to hold a Thanksgiving Market and rummage sale Nov. 21 to pay for the annual Christmas party for the children of the school. The PTA also made plans to sponsor an all-male comedy, "Big Baby Review", to be presented in January.

The meeting opened with group singing led by Bruce Kramp, with Martha Hoagland at the piano. Devotions on the Thanksgiving theme were led by Ray Harris. During the business meeting a report of the magazine committee was given by Mrs. Richard Blazer. Plans for the market, to be held at Bailey's Hardware store and the rummage sale, to be held at the library were outlined by Mrs. Delbert Greenwood, chairman of the ways and means committee. She outlined plans for the comedy night to be produced and directed by Harlowe M. Rickard and Co. using all local talent.

The group voted to sponsor a special observance of National Education Week by visiting the school this week. Mrs. Doris Virden announced that Grade School Open House would be held Friday night, Nov. 30. There will be a "short order" supper and program. The president, Mrs. Ivan Cooper, appointed Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harruff and Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Pinney to serve as the committee for the Christmas treat.

The program was in charge of Mrs. Earl James and was presented by those in the north school district. Her committee included Mrs. Lauren Holland, Mrs. Mac Weist and Mrs. Harold Myers. A radio broadcast from station "WIND" with John Weist as master of ceremonies, included a trumpet solo by Bruce Kramp, accompanied by Mrs. Sheldon Kramp, readings by Mrs. Rowland McElhony, piano duet by Myrna and Verna Holland, a piano solo by Martha Hoagland, a poem by Mrs. Weist and a vocal and piano number by Susan Cluff. The door prize was won by Mrs. Russell Young and the attendance and percentage prizes were won by the third grade.

SUSPENDED DOCTOR. World famous physiologist Dr. Andrew C. Ivy is suspended for three months by the Chicago Medical Society for his promotion of the new cancer drug, "Krebiozen." An American Medical Association committee reported the drug almost worthless in cancer treatment. Dr. Ivy, vice president in charge of professional schools of the University of Illinois, disputed this claim and said he will continue his "investigation of the merits of Krebiozen."

NEVADA GROUP ELECTS

The following officers were elected at a recent organizational meeting of the Nevada Future Homemakers of America: Norma Monroe, president; June Mackley, vice president; Ann McClain, secretary; Natalie Jo Coons, treasurer; and Sally Minier, news reporter. Mrs. Erwin Tschantz will serve as club mother. The group will meet the fourth Monday of every month. The next meeting will be Nov. 26 at 7:30 p.m. in the home economics room at Nevada High School.

CORRECTION

Roberta Heininger is on the make-up committee for Harding High School's junior class play, "The Red Spider," to be presented Dec. 5 and 6. The name was incorrectly reported as Weininger in Wednesday's Star.

Driver Bruised In Route 31 Mishap Near Marysville

A tractor and semi-trailer owned by the CCC Highway Inc. turned over in a ditch after hitting a cow on Route 31, three miles north of Marysville, at 3 a.m. today, state highway patrolmen reported.

Denver Hubbard, 38, of Cincinnati, driver of the outfit, was bruised about the head, hands, and legs. The vehicle was damaged extensively and had to be removed by a wrecker from Kenton.

The cow, which was owned by Wayne Stiles of near Marysville, was severely injured.

Cars driven by Francis W. Caddes, 38, of Cambridge, O., and Mrs. Ella M. Pyers of Marysville collided yesterday at 5:50 p. m. at the junction of routes 31 and 47 in Summersville in Union Co. Caddes was traveling north on Route 31 and Mrs. Pyers was going east on Route 47.

Mrs. Pyers suffered a wrenched back but was not treated. The cars were considerably damaged and were removed by wreckers from Marysville.

Two arrests were made yesterday by state highway patrolmen.

Ben Robinette, 20, of near Louisa, Ky., is being held in Morrow County jail following his arrest on Route 42 in Morrow County at 9 p.m. Investigation is being conducted to determine if he had authority to operate the car he was driving when arrested. He was also charged with driving without a driver's license.

Harry V. Rialecki, 44, of Toledo was arrested for passing at the crest of a hill on Route 23 at 4:30 p. m. He posted bond for appearance Nov. 20 in Marion Municipal Court.

Woman Pleads Innocent At Wright Field

DAYTON, O., Nov. 15—(AP)—Mrs. Bernice S. Emerick pleaded innocent yesterday to a charge of embezzling $12,749 from the Wright Field credit union.

Federal Judge Robert R. Nevin set trial for Nov. 26.

The 49-year-old grandmother, former secretary-treasurer of the credit union, was returned to the Hamilton County jail at Cincinnati where she was brought after being returned from California.

Mrs. Emerick didn't say a word during her arraignment. Her attorney entered her plea.

Before going into the courtroom she said, "I have a lot to say but I'm not going to say it until later."

Harry P. Jeffrey, attorney for the credit union, said a recent audit showed more than $200,000 missing from the organization's funds.

REV. PAUL H. WOOD

Conducts Services At Martel Church

The Rev. Paul H. Wood of Portland, Ore., evangelist and musician and a former seminary professor, is holding special services at the Martel Methodist Church. He will be the speaker for the union Thanksgiving service at Iberia Thanksgiving morning, and will be heard on the radio from Marion over WMRN the Friday following.

Services at the Martel Church will continue through Nov. 25. Well known in the evangelistic field, the Rev. Wood was instructor in Bible at the Western Evangelical Seminary at Portland several years. Services will be at 7:45 on week nights and at 7:30 Sunday nights, Rev. Paul A. Brodt, pastor, announced.

At Iberia, the union service for Thanksgiving will be at 10 a.m. at the Federated Church. The host pastor is Dr. Frank Boyd. Rev. Brodt is pastor of the Martel and Iberia Methodist Churches.

BUCYRUS HOSPITAL BIRTHS

BUCYRUS — City Hospital notes: admissions, Miss Mary Jo Creger of Nevada; Robert Eggleston of Bucyrus; releases, Mrs. Lillie Atwood, Mrs. Joseph Kibler, Robert Greenich, all of Bucyrus; Mrs. Leo Rober of near New Washington; a tonsillectomy was performed on Kathleen Burling, 4, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Burling of Bucyrus.

Leaves Bequest To Green Camp Methodist Church

The Green Camp Methodist Church was named main beneficiary in the will of the late A. F. Bricker of Green Camp, who died Oct. 27.

The will probated in Marion County Probate Court this week, provides bequests for 13 relatives; 11 for $50 and two for $1,000. The remainder of his property will be converted into cash for use by the church.

Mr. Bricker designated the money should be placed in a deposit at the Marion Federal Savings and Loan Association here. Trustees of the church were given the privilege of withdrawing $100 a year and the interest on the principal on Jan. 2 until the sum is exhausted. The money is to be used in operating expenses of the church.

Coe E. Leach of Green Camp, a nephew of Mr. Bricker, was executor of the will. The Bricker home and real estate at Green Camp has not been sold and no estimate was available on the amount to be received by the church.

Union Farm Values Increase in 5 Years

MARYSVILLE — Average per farm value of land and buildings in Union County has increased from $9,834 in 1945 to $19,403 in 1950, according to federal census estimate reports received here.

The farm census report on estimates of all farms based on a sampling of 20 per cent of the farms in the county reveals: There were 2,086 tracts of land listed as farms in 1950 compared with 2,242 in 1945, the average farm increasing in size from 119.2 acres to 124.7 acres during the five-year period. Average value per acre was listed at $138.26 last year as compared with $82.50 in the 1945 census.

Antibiotics Aid in Treating Rare Type of TB

The outlook for those suffering from tuberculosis is more hopeful today than ever before in history, due in part, at least, to our new antibiotic drugs. This is particularly true of tuberculosis of the kidneys and reproductive organs, a rather rare form of the disease, but one which formerly was highly fatal.

The tuberculosis germ is usually spread to the kidney by the blood from an infection elsewhere in the body. This type of infection is most common in persons in the 20-to-40 age group, and generally involves only one side..

Symptoms may be absent until it has progressed to a late stage. They include frequency of urination, painful urination with burning, and pain over the kidney area. Very often, if the urine is examined carefully under the miscrocope, the tuberculosis germs may be seen. If the kidney infection is allowed to establish itself, the germ may spread down through the bladder and reproductive organs.

Sometimes, in cases very difficult to diagnose, the inoculation of urine from the suspected tuberculosis patient into a guinea pig may be helpful in making a diagnosis. If the infection is present, the guinea pig will die from tuberculosis in about four weeks.

In some cases X-rays aid greatly in helping to diagnose this type of infection.

Many times, medical treatment with today's new wonder drugs is sufficient to cure tuberculosis the kidneys and reproductive organs. Streptomycin, accompanied by chaulmoogra oil and para-amino-salicylic acid, may be spectacularly effective in certain cases.

When these drugs are not effective, surgery may be required. If only one kidney is involved extensively, it may have to be removed.

Diet, of course, should be adequate in all of these cases, and a long period of rest is essential to complete recuperation from the infection.

Questions and Answers

D. J.: What is a thrombosis of the veins in the legs, and what is the treatment for it?

Answer: Thrombosis is the formation of a clot in the veins of the legs. This condition, when accompanied by an inflammation, is known as thrombophlebitis.

However, if a thrombosis without infection occurs in the legs, surgically tying off of the vein which has the clot is the accepted treatment.

Retired Men Ready To Aid Defense Work

SAN DIEGO, Calif. —(AP)— Men coming from retirement to aid their country's defense include at one aircraft plant here such contrasts as a former admiral, a former newspaper editor and a former Boy Scout executive.

Rear Adm. Karl J. Christoph, who retired from the Navy in 1947, is at work in the contract administration department of the Ryan Aeronautical Co. He is 54 years old.

John D. Dun, 59, employed as a stock clerk by the same company, was editor of the Toledo Times from 1914 to 1939.

Earle B. Moore, 62, also employed as a stock clerk, was a Boy Scout executive at Colorado Springs, Dubuque, Ia., Greeley, Colo., and San Diego before retiring in September.

The retired admiral saw extensive service in Pacific amphibious operations during World War II.

After retiring from the Toledo Times in 1939, Dun moved to a ranch at Tucson, Ariz., but in World War II joined the American field service as an ambulance driver attached to the French foreign legion in Africa. He later served with the American Military Government in France and England.

Daniel Carter Beard, founder of the Boy Scouts of America, was born in Cincinnati June 21, 1850.

Short Circuit Is Shorted By Safety Gadget

CHICAGO —(AP)— Fire prevention to Fire Fighter Clarence Curtis is more than a couple of words. He's done something about it.

He invented and patented an electric adapter plug that can be fitted with low amperage fuses. Its purpose is to prevent fires caused by electrical short circuits. The gadget now is being marketed. Curtis' fuse coupling device plugs into the wall outlet. It is called a "fireguard" and can be fused to hold up to 15 amperes of electric current. But he favors lower ampere fusing to catch short circuits before they have a chance to smolder or flash into flames.

In Fire Department

Inventor Curtis, 59, is a member of the Lombard, Ill., fire department, and a development engineer with a Chicago manufacturing company. He figured there was one main reason for most electrically caused fires — extension or lamp cords. The main line of a house circuit usually is fused with 30 ampere fuses. Each branch line to various areas of a home usually is protected by 15 ampere fuses. In the early days of electricity in the home, six ampere fuses were used.

Curtis reasoned that adapters for wall outlets could be fused with low amperage fuses. It would serve as a first line of defense against short circuits and most of the fire danger would be eliminated.

Overloading Common

Curtis said overloading of branch line electrical circuits is practiced in homes, offices, farm buildings and factories alike. The tendency is to install fuses that can withstand the extra load. Consequently, when a short develops or an appliance motor burns, the safety valve fuse is cheated of its duty.

He uses this rule to figure how much fusing protection is necessary for the average wall outlet hookup: One ampere protects each 100 watts of load. So if you have two 25-watt bed lamps, two 40-watt dresser lamps and a 75-watt radio in a bedroom all you'd need would be a two ampere fuse.

Did You Know

This year marks the fiftieth anniversary of the National Bureau of Standards. Created by law in 1901, the bureau is the principal agency of the federal government for fundamental research in physics, mathematics, chemistry, and engineering.

The 780,000 square feet of clay tile lining walls and ceilings of New York's Brooklyn-Battery tunnel, longest in the United States, are so easily cleaned that the entire job can be completed in two nights.

The meat of the waterbuck is not very palatable. The natives in the African Sudan use only the horns as musical instruments.

Santa Has an Ohio Workshop

SANTA ON THE JOB—The small fry will fight fire (imaginary, we hope), with the latest equipment.

CINCINNATI—(AP) — Santa Claus is keeping a watchful eye on the making of toys at one of "his branch plants" here.

The plant is that of the Charles William Doepke Mfg. Co., in suburban Rossmoyne. There more than 220,000 one-sixteenth scale models of fire engines and road building equipment are being built this year. More would have been made if the materials could have been obtained.

More than a million miniature rubber tires—exact duplicates of those used on the regular fire trucks and road machinery—are being used this year.

One fire truck is based on a regular aerial ladder rig that is manufactured in Elmira, N. Y. It's ladder can be raised almost four feet in the air and it can be steered from a miniature steering wheel. A ringing bell adds to the realism.

More than 70 parts go into each truck. Heavy presses, ranging up to 150 tons, are needed to cut the steel and three stage progressive dies are used to create the metal chassis.

N.Y. Stock Quotations

NEW YORK, Nov. 15—(UP)— Stocks made an irregular gain at a quiet opening today.

Traders continued cautious, pending more definite indications of trend. In the absence of any adverse items in the news, however, buy orders came into a fair number of issues and lifted their prices. Some of the leading stocks slipped on realizing sales.

Special issues like Marathon Corp., up 1 at 56, stood out in an otherwise narrow moving list. United Air Lines featured in volume with a block of 4,000 shares at 32 up ¼. Aluminum, Ltd., gained nearly a point in the metals where Magma lost ½ point and Kennecott held steady.

Trading turned very dull after the opening with the exception of Laclede. Prices generally held around the initial levels.

Million-Year-Old Bones Studied

WASHINGTON—(UP) — Casts of reconstructed million-year-old skulls and other bones unearthed in Africa have been acquired by the Smithsonian Institution.

Museum authorities believe study of the bones may open "a new chapter in man's pre-history."

The bones belong to "Australopithecus"—a curious ape-like creature with primitive human characteristics. Anthropologists think this mammal represents an early tendency toward the development of man that came to a dead end.

The Australopithecus remains were discovered in primeval caverns at Makapans in the Central Transvaal, South Africa. Most of the bones have been found since 1947 by Dr. Raymond A. Dart of the University of the Witwatersrand at Johannesburg.

Australopithecus apparently stood erect in contrast to other apes living and extinct. His pelvis is similar to that of modern man and the skull shape indicates that he held his head upright.

The original bones remain at Pretoria Museum in South Africa, but Smithsonian says its copies are so exact that they will be useful to anthropologists.

Infant's First Tooth Has To Be Pulled

JERSEYVILLE, Ill. — (UP) — Most babies don't start cutting teeth until they are six months old. One-month-old John Neubauer already has had one pulled.

John came into the world with one fully developed tooth. He cut a second tooth the second week.

However, the first tooth began to act up, and John's parents took him to the dentist.

PASTOR'S TRIBUTE

Maud Drake Inskeep was born in Marion County, Ohio in 1864 to the family of F. M. and Minerva Drake.

For a great many years Mrs. Inskeep taught music and in 1900 opened a school of music in the city of Marion, being accomplished in her profession.

Although in later years she had to change her place of residence frequently, she always kept in touch with the church of her choice.

Living to a ripe age which is a rare blessing, even though many bereavements came across her life's pathway she continued to keep an active interest in the things of life.

Death came to her at her home in Pittsburgh, Pa., after a prolonged illness from which she succumbed after second stroke in 13 days; being lovingly cared for by her granddaughter, Miss Alice Minerva Southard.

Those who are deceased are her parents, the husband, daughter and two brothers.

Those who are left to experience this loss are: the granddaughter, the son-in-law, W. Carleton Southard of West Mansfield, Ohio, two nephews, Kelsey Drake of Sycamore, Ohio, and George Drake of Arizona, and a niece, Crete, of Chicago, Ill., and many friends and former students.

"Over the River"—the old, sweet song,
The road to the rest there is not so long;
A song and a sigh and a brief goodby,
And we meet with dreams 'neath a stormless sky.
"Over the River"—the song that thrills,
Its music from the heavenly hills;
The pain and peril of life's time past,
And the rest that is given of God at last.
"Over the River"—so sweet it seems,
To drift away to the starlit dreams;
To fear no more the fall o' night,
"Over the River," where "love is light."

"RECORD OF BARBARISM." Murder of 12,790 Allied prisoners of war, including 5,660 Americans, is charged to the Chinese and North Korean Communists in a special report issued by United States Eighth Army Judge Advocate Col. James M. Hanley of Seattle (above). The atrocity report labeled the slaughter a "record of killings and barbarism unique even in the Communist world." The report accused the Reds of executing 5,660 G.I.'s, 130 United Nations prisoners and more than 7,000 South Korean POW's.

Hunters

crop, which is reported good this year.

Hunters throughout the state had a promise of a rewarding hunting season, The Associated Press reported.

About 700,000 pheasants and 4,664,530 rabbits were taken by Ohio hunters last year, and a bigger harvest is expected this year, said state wildlife officials.

The weather served to eliminate much of the favorite hiding places of the game, making the targets easier to locate and shoot, they said.

More Hunters, Too

But not only the harvest is "up."

An estimated 750,000 licenses at $2.25 have been sold, as compared with 715,000 at $1.25 a year ago. Shotgun shells, which not long ago sold from 35 cents up, now range down from $3.15 for a box of 25.

The pheasant season runs through Nov. 30, and the limit is two per day with four being allowed in possession after the first day. The hen birds may not be killed.

Rabbits may be taken through Jan. 1. The limit is four, and no more than four may be in possession at any time.

The bag limit on ruffed grouse is the same as pheasant and the season the same as for rabbits.

The wildlife division asked hunters to take one bit of advice: "Be careful, always. And be certain to get permission of the farmer before you attempt to hunt on his land."

Swede Wins Nobel Prize In Literature

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 15—(AP)—The Swedish Academy today awarded the 1951 Nobel Prize for literature to one of its own members, Par Lagerkvist, author of the novels "The Dwarf" and "Barababbas." Lagerkvist, who is 60 years old and a playwright, poet, essayist and writer of short stories as well as a novelist, will receive a check for 167,612 crowns ($32,357) from King Gustav Adolf at the Nobel Prize presentation ceremony to be held in Stockholm on Dec. 10.

The selection of Lagerkvist for this year's literature prize was not unexpected here. He was mentioned among contenders in 1949 and again in 1950, running second to American novelist William Faulkner in the academy's balloting in the latter year.

He is the fourth Swede to win the prize. Previous Swedish winners were Selma Lagerlof, Verner Von Heidenstam and Erick Axel Karlfeldt.

In choosing Lagerkvist, the academy, of which he has been a member since 1940, clearly followed the wishes of the donor of the prize, Alfred Nobel. Nobel stipulated that the writing of prize winners should have "an idealistic tendency."

Although Lagerkvist has written more than 30 books since he published his first work in 1912, he was little known outside Scandinavia until the appearance of his novel of the renaissance, "The Dwarf," in 1944. It appeared in translation in the U. S. in 1945.

CHARGES PEACE THREAT

PARIS, Nov. 15—(AP)—Communist Yugoslavia charged today that Russia's satellites have 25 divisions poised on her borders, threatening world peace. Speaking before the United Nations General Assembly, Yugoslav foreign minister Edward Kardelj claimed this was almost double the number of troops the satellites — Hungary, Romania and Bulgaria—had stationed there two years ago.

TRAPS EX-CONVICT

CLEVELAND, Nov. 15—(AP)—A detective disguised as the mother of Beverly Potts today trapped an ex-convict police say tried to extort $5,000 from the missing girl's parents. Detective Bernard Conley, walked into a downtown alley behind a man identified as Frank Davis, 48. As Conley offered Davis a small paper bag supposed to contain the money police darted out from doorways and autos and nabbed him.

MacArthur Stirs Up New Political Storm

SEATTLE, Nov. 15— (AP) — General Douglas MacArthur, still the center of a civic storm that rocked political circles of the Pacific Northwest, leaves here today on route to his home in New York.

He carries with him the memory of a sea of faces lined for miles along the cold, blustery, wet route he followed for the 40 hours he visited Seattle, Tacoma and way points. But with him also went the bitter words of Democratic party bigwigs who objected to his anti-administration speech here Tuesday night.

He gave recognition in remarks made at a banquet late last night to the storm he had created.

"Miss Jeanie from Murfeesboro," he said in obvious reference to his wife, "tells me I have already said too much and if I don't say anything and shut up they will like you a lot." With that and a few other humorous references to the storm he ceased talking.

Earlier, in Tacoma and Puyallup, southwest of Seattle, he told his audiences he had not talked politics in his speech opening Seattle's centennial celebration, "Just Americanism." But along the parade line some boos and catcalls were heard mixed in the applause.

And while MacArthur was curbing his tongue, Rep. Hugh Mitchell (D-Wash), in a speech before the Young Men's Democratic Club, said the general was a man with "tarnished brass and tattered braid" who used our centennial as a forum of personal spite and attempted political revenge."

Mitchell said MacArthur had stepped down from a high position "into the quagmire of Republican confusionist politics," then accused him of inconsistency in his stand on the Korean conflict.

Teachers Begin Study Of Language Arts

A group of approximately 50 teachers in the city schools met with Dr. Leland Jacobs of Ohio State University in the first of a series of study meetings on "Language Arts," Wednesday night in West Hall at Harding High School.

The series is a part of the in-service training program sponsored this year by the Superintendents Advisory Council. The meeting was held in the library at the State Street Junior High School building.

The next meeting will be Nov. 28. The remainder of the series will be conducted following the Christmas holidays.

Executives Club To Hear Adventurer

Speaker at the next meeting of the Executives Club will be Sydney R. Montague, a former member of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, adventurer and philosopher who has spent many years in the Canadian wilds.

The meeting is scheduled Nov. 28 at Hotel Harding.

Montague spent most of his six years in the Mounted police in the arctic patrol. He was educated for a career as an engineer in Montreal, but he cast that aside when he saw an opportunity to serve with the Mounted Police.

He has just completed a book which is to be published soon. His ancestors arrived in the Americas by way of the Spanish Main. Ft. Montague, in the Bahamas, carries the family name.

Dr. Floyd Yeager is president of the Marion Executives Club and Earl R. Andrews is secretary.

Question Four In Series Of Area Thefts

COLUMBUS, Nov. 15—(INS)—Authorities of four central Ohio counties today questioned four ex-convicts in connection with a three-month series of burglaries and safe-crackings in the area.

Held at London are two brothers, William and George Denny and in Pickaway County is James Lycock and in Franklin County is Raymond Grambo.

The arrests were announced yesterday by authorities in those counties and in Madison and Union Counties.

Eston Williams Bowling Green Grange Master

Special to The Star

LARUE, Nov. 15 — Eston Williams was elected master of the Bowling Green Grange Friday night at annual election of officers. During the business meeting lecturer Buleah Olsen announced that there would be a representative from the Social Security office in Marion attending the next meeting at which time a film would be shown and social security questions could be asked. There would also be a miscellaneous program. Refreshments for the Nov. 23 meeting would be in charge of Mrs. Benton Denman, Mrs. Neil Little and Miss Delta Owen. Mmembers were requested to bring sales tax to be redeemed for the benefit of the Grange.

With Eston Williams as master, Delbert Greenwood will serve as overseer and Mrs. J. T. Jones as lecturer. Rowland McElheny was elected steward; Karl Sasse, assistant steward; Ivah Owen, chaplain; Mrs. A. C. Waters, treasurer; Mrs. Jeremiah Adams, secretary; John Owen, gatekeeper; Ceres, Mrs. Rowland McElheny; Pomona, Mrs. M. A. Elsey; Flora, Mrs. Karl Sasse; lady assistant steward, Mrs. Eston Williams; juvenile matron, Mrs. Tom Crawford. Willis Bowles, Eston Williams and John Owen were elected trustees; Earl Hennis, legislative agent; Cletus Snyder, youth chairman. The home economics committee will consist of Mrs. McElheny, Mrs. Delbert Greenwood and Mrs. Robert Watkins.

Ousted Crawford Home Heads' Appeal Hearing Postponed

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS, Nov. 15—The appeal of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dinkel, ousted superintendent and matron of the Crawford County Home, scheduled to be heard here today by the state civil service commission, has been postponed indefinitely.

The postponement was arranged by Prosecutor Leo J. Scanlon and Edward J. Meyers, Bucyrus attorney and counsel for the Dinkels. A new date probably will be set after grand jury indictments against the Dinkels are disposed of, court attaches reported.

The Dinkels were dismissed Aug. 30 by county commissioners and appealed their ouster to the state commission a few days later. They denied the charges of home mismanagement and inmate mistreatment filed against them by commissioners following a probe of home conditions by Scanlon.

Since Oct. 1, the grand jury has been investigating alleged irregularities at the home. It has indicted Dinkel on charges of embezzlement, grand larceny, inmate torture and certifying fraudulent bills. Mrs. Dinkel was indicted on a torture charge.

The jury also indicted County Commissioner Walter Sargel and his brother, Arthur, Galion Equity manager, on the same embezzlement and larceny count in which Dinkel was indicted. Walter Sargel also was indicted on a charge of interest in a county contract while serving as a public official.

The Dinkels and Sargels have been free on bond since their preliminary arraignment Nov. 2. At their scheduled arraignments last Saturday, attorneys for the four filed a series of motions, which delayed their aggaignments. The motions are being studied by Common Pleas Judge C. U. Ahl.

Elm Disease Meeting Set

To Be Held Tonight At Edison Jr. High

A meeting is scheduled for tonight at Edison Junior High School for persons interested in curbing the Dutch Elm Disease and elm phloem necrosis.

The meeting, which has been arranged jointly by Cody Hartman, Marion tree surgeon and Safety-Service Director Ralph Forrest, will be held at 8 p.m.

Featured speaker will be Frank G. Mead of Columbus, a member of the Federal Division of Forest Insects. He will also show movies of the work of the various stages of the Dutch Elm disease and various control measures.

A photographic exhibit has been placed in the Marion County Bank showing stages of the disease, and enlarged, specimens of the beetles which carry the disease.

Included in the display are samples of sprays used to curb the disease carrying beetles, and logs from diseased trees. The display will be left in the bank for about two weeks, Hartman said.

Pedestrian Hit by Auto

Mrs. Winifred Jolliff Hurt in Accident

Mrs. Winifred Jolliff, of 134 E. Church St. was struck and slightly injured by a car driven by John W. Hoey, 39, of near Marion at Main St. and Center St. Wednesday at 10:15 a. m.

She was taken to the hospital by police where she was treated for bruises on her legs and released.

Mrs. Jolliff was crossing S. Main St. from the west side of the street when she walked into the path of the north-bound car, which was attempting a right turn, police reported.

Hospital Group Sees Sketches Of Building

Members of the building committee of the new Marion General Hospital were shown preliminary sketches of the building last night at a meeting held at the Marion Power Shovel Co.

Harvey T. Gracely, acting as spokesman for the committee, said the meeting was held to acquaint committee members with the preliminary sketches.

Dan A. Carmichael Jr. of Columbus, a member of the Dan A. Carmichael architectural firm of Columbus, presented the sketches to the committee. The sketches were the same ones shown members of the staff at Marion City Hospital a week ago, Mr. Gracely said. Mr. Carmichael answered questions on the sketches during the meeting.

Members attending included Mayor Harold F. Robinson, chairman, Mr. Gracely, George Probst, Dale Lawrence, James Fields, Clyde Hinamon, Wilbur Highland, and J. Malcolm Strelitz.

Mr. Gracely said no date was set by the committee for the next meeting.

Harding Primed To Shoot for Buckeye League Title

through the SPORTSCOPE with A.L. McCLAIN

NO MUSIC. While Assistant Coach Ernie Godfrey of Ohio State is using music "to antagonize the spirit" of the Bucks against Illinois Saturday we sat in on some different "music" in the Harding locker room this week.

The movies of the Prexies' loss to Sandusky last week were being shown and the mistakes by the local youngsters weren't pleasant to see.

Coaches Pete Howison, Georeg Keel, John Luginbuhl, and Bob Auble took turns pointing out the errors that stalled Harding's offense and permitted the Blue Streaks to score four TDs through the air.

GEORGE TAKES OVER. The lights went on after the final reel and George Keel took over. But instead of soothing music, likable George gave a stirring pep talk that would have matched the old master, Knute Rockne.

'What you do out there Friday night against Fremont is going to be important to you," he said, "Win the game and you'll talk about it the rest of your life."

He went on to cite some players as not giving out with the best of their ability against Sandusky and patted others on the back.

Turning to Dick Hendel, Harding guard, George said, "Dick, you played a wonderful game — you were never better."

SPIRIT AROUSED. The Prexy coach went on for another 5 or 6 minutes before he had ended his say.

Then the entire team jumped to its feet and gave out with a resounding, "let's go!"

Walking out on the practice field we sided up to George, "You really let 'em have it."

George grinned. "They're great kids with plenty of spirit and they like to play football. We're trying to impress upon them fully what winning the Buckeye League championship would mean."

We acknowledged that knocking off the 10th ranking team in the state would be quite an accomplishment.

UPS AN DOWNS. Out on the field Tackle Tuts Taylor was putting the Prexies through a lengthy calisthenics Tuts worked them until they almost dropped.

He and George Kasotis were the only ones still going after 40 push ups.

Pete Howison looked pleased. "They're really working for this one," he said, "but sometimes we have to get after 'em. We could do it Friday night with a few breaks—."

NOW THEY KNOW. Two seasons ago Massillon was named the state's No. 1 prep eleven despite having lost to Mansfield. In the ratings this week Massillon dropped to second place behind Steubenville, a team the Tigers defeated.

Personally we rate Massillon still on top just as we rated Mansfield two years ago ..

Salesmen Agree To Give Thorpe Helping Hand

AKRON, O., Nov. 15—(AP)—A group of rubber company salesmen are going to provide financial assistance to Jim Thorpe, the Indian athlete of a bygone era who now is ill in a Philadelphia hospital.

Help was pledged yesterday at a national sales meeting of the General Tire & Rubber Co. A member of the force was sent to Philadelphia to make the arrangements for Thorpe's care.

Officials of the rubber concern emphasized that the money was raised by the salesmen themselves. No figure was disclosed.

Thorpe, one of the nation's greatest athletic figures, had a cancerous growth removed from his lip last Friday and is to undergo additional plastic surgery

Back in 1921, Thorpe played baseball with the Akron team in the old International League. He also played against General's industrial teams of that day and with the Canton football Bulldogs in nearby Canton.

Twelve Harding gridders will be playing their final game for Harding High School tomorrow in the Buckeye League title battle with Fremont Ross.

They are: Tom McClain, Dick Hendel, George Kasotis, Jim Arnold, Tats Taylor, Jim Larsen, Jim Russell, Ken Stanley, Jack Bull, Roger Williams, Lee Price and Tom Turner.

Largest crowd of the season is expected at the season finale. Fremont has already sold its allotted 1,500 tickets. These included 500 student tickets, 500 reserved seats and 500 general admission ducats. Locally, tickets are on sale at the National City Bank and Markert and Lewis or may be purchased at the gate. Game time is 8 p.m.

The Harding gridders are in near perfect condition, both physically and mentally, for the game.

Coach Pete Howison and his staff have succeeded in keying the squad to a perfect pitch as game time nears. A win for the Prexies would give them the league title over confident Fremont Ross. Only question mark in the Prexy camp is Jim Chapman, defensive specialist. He has been slowed up by a back injury and may be limited against the Giants

Worked Hard All Week

The Prexies have worked cheerfully through lengthy practice sessions since last week's 39-20 defeat at Sandusky and several observers in Marion are predicting an upset win for the locals.

Harding will go into the game as decided underdogs against the power-packed Giants. However, with McClain, Russell, Brady and Co. running against a relatively weak defensive unit, the Harding crew could easily stun the Ross men. The Fremont defense has demonstrated its weakness several times during the season, particularly against Bowling Green. The Bobcats rolled to 27 points against Ross, Findlay, doormat of the league, rolled over Fremont for three touchdowns in being edged, 25-21.

Howison probably will go along with his usual starting offensive 11. This would put McClain, Russell, Brady and Chuck Taylor or Doug Bibler in the backfield, Tony D'Eramo and Ed Morse at ends, Jim Arnold and Tats Taylor at tackles, Jim Larsen and Bill Bailey or Henry Deal at the guards and Jack Bull at center.

Heavy Team

Fremont will be fielding one of the heaviest teams to face Harding this season. The starting line averages just slightly under 200 pounds while the backs average 177 for a combined team average of 191 pounds.

Biggest man in the Ross lineup will be Center Charlie Jones, a 257-pound sophomore. Guard Bob Biggs, captain of the squad, tips the scales at 223 and Tackle Keith Hull weighs in at 220.

John Lewis, one of two Fremont candidates for all-Ohio backfield honors, is the biggest man in the backfield. The 6-3 halfback scales 198. Jerome Surratt, second big gun for the Giants, is 165, second smallest man on the squad. Ron Whitcomb, quarterback weighs in at 168 and Fullback Earl Asperger weighs 178.

The Giants probably will be up for the Harding encounter since a win will give them possession of the Buckeye League title and the first undefeated season in Ross' history. The Fremont team has rolled to eight wins and was held to a 13-13 tie by Columbus East. The team has been unbeaten since Oct. 20, 1950 when Cleveland Shaw squeezed by to a 14-0 edge. Their record this year includes wins over Willoughby, 39-7, Lorain, 14-7, Fostoria, 26-0, Findlay, 25-21, Sandusky, 19-14, Bowling Green, 42-27, Elyria, 26-7, and Toledo Scott, 19-0.

Most of Fremont's hopes rest on Lewis and Surratt. Should the Prexies bottle up these two runners, the Buckeye Loop title could easily come to Marion. Fremont coaches already have forecast Harding scoring at least twice on a relatively weak Fremont defense. At least three long runs are expected from Lewis or his smaller running mate.

Surratt Runs Inside

Surratt was more outstanding as a runner last year when he was going outside. This year he goes inside while Lewis usually runs wide. Harding's gridders remember Surratt from last year when he repeatedly ripped off long gains around the Prexy line.

The starting lineup for Fremont probably will include Jerry Borczak and Jerry Pastorous at ends, Julius Sims and Keith Hull at the tackle, Biggs and Dick Burkett at guards, Jones at center, Ron Whitcomb at the quarterback slot, Lewis and Surratt at the halves and Asperger at fullback. Charlie Black will be the only new man on defense. Several position changes are made defensively but the same men remain in action.

Says Stopping Spring Drills Is No Solution

Claims Educators Off Side in Bid To Cure Grid Ills

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15—(AP)—Somebody raised the question yesterday: "Why all the fuss about spring football? It's fall football that causes the trouble." . . .But that seems to be the way the educators go about curing football's ailments. They operate on the wrong thing . . . remember when the Big Three presidents banned competition by transfer students, even when they hadn't played for another college? That one didn't stand up any more than the famous Tad Jones-Hill Roper nonscouting agreement . . . Lot of other "cures" were equally ineffective . . . . probably spring practice is overdone in a lot of places . . . . Certainly it can be expensive, although Yale didn't give money as a reason for cutting it out . . . . But can you imagine developing a team like the current Princeton outfit without the benefit of spring drills . . . . Three or four weeks work in the fall isn't enough to carry out such experiments as transforming a fourth-string blocking back into a first-string running guard . . . And Penn's George Munger apparently was right on the beam when he argued that would result in redoubled efforts to recruit ready-made football players . . . . So you do away with one "evil" and increase a worse one.

NO OFFENSE TAKEN. When the Cleveland Browns and Philly Eagles were playing last Sunday, a couple of players crashed just in front of the Philly bench after a tugging match along the sidelines . . . The Eagles' trainer, picked up the water bucket, apparently trying to revive a flattened athlete, but somehow he managed to hit the Brownie with the bucket instead of its contents . . . . On Monday Coach Paul Brown encountered Trainer Leo Murphy in the Cleveland office and pointedly asked: "Do you see the aggressiveness of some trainers?"

CLEANING THE CUFF. Duke's Truett Gantt, who has played opposite Ray Beck of Georgia Tech and Ted Daffer of Tennessee this season, gives Beck the edge . . . . Was the acquisition of a 33-year-old pitcher, Randy Gumpert, the first move in the Red Sox "youth program?" . . . A presumably neutral observer, Capt. Walter Charlesworth, tabs the U. of San Francisco football team as being better than Illinois . . . Since 1946, Notre Dame has had only one football player who has failed to receive his academic degree . . . John (Sonny Boy) Forisz, who'll be an apprentice pitcher in the Dodger chain next spring, is keeping his arm in shape working as an apprentice butcher in Stratford, Conn. . . . . After being shifted from defensive guard to offensive center on the Detroit Lions, big Les Bingaman chuckled: "If they keep me at center, I'll play 12 more seasons of professional football."

O'Connell To Smith

Illini Pass Combination Developed in Prep Play

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Nov. 15—(AP)—The Tommy O'Connell to Rex Smith battery combination, Illinois' newest weapon, is really old stuff.

The pair first struck headlines as teammates five years ago at South Shore, Chicago city high school gridiron team.

Smith, now a 6 foot 2 inch, 199-pound junior end, migrated directly to Illinois. O'Connell, a triple-threat single wing tailback as a prep, took a more circuitous route. He went by way of Notre Dame.

Probably O'Connell's biggest test as a field general and triggerman will come Saturday at Ohio State when he matches wits against quarterback Tony Curcillo.

This will be an all-out game for the Illini who need only one more victory to clinch at least a share of the conference title and the Rose Bowl bid. Illinois concludes its regular season next week against Northwestern.

Johnny Karras is only one touchdown shy of matching the all-time Illinois record set by Red Grange and matched by Buddy Young in the modern era.

As Illinois points for its first perfect season since Grange, who in his 1923 sophomore year, led the orange and blue to an unbeaten and untied season of eight victories, O'Connell's steady work as signal caller and passer becomes a major factor.

Entering the Ohio State game—the 40th meeting between the two schools—O'connell has a sparkling pass completion mark of .597. He has hit on 43 out of 72 tosses for 448 yards and six touchdowns.

Passing again may decide the outcome as it did last year when Illinois, ranked a seven point underdog, hurled two first-half touchdown pitches for a 14-7 triumph.

The first street railroad in Ohio appeared at Cincinnati in 1859.

Illinois High In Statistics

CHICAGO, Nov. 15 —(AP)—The University of Illinois, averaging 4.75 yards each time it put the ball in play, moved up to a position as one of the Big Ten's top statistical teams.

The unbeaten Illini, needing only two more wins to complete a perfect season, are in second pla[ce] defensively and offensively by conference yardage figures.

But the Big Ten leaders still trail Wisconsin in both categories. The Badgers, who follow Illinois and Michigan in team standings, rate tops in average gained and refused.

Illinois has average 314.5 yards for each Big Ten game played. It has yielded 221.5 yards per game.

Wisconsin has gained 367.8 yards each game and yielded only 136.2 yards.

The Illini jumped into top statistical contention on the strength of a one-sided performance against Iowa last Saturday. Illinois won 40-13, jumped its per-game rushing average by 31 yards and raised its passing average 29 yards.

Much of the Illini offensive surge can be attributed to the marksmanship of quarterback Tom O'Connell, who has been hitting .569 per cent of his aerial attempts.

Toledo Drops Glass Bowl

TOLEDO, O., Nov. 15—(AP)—The University of Toledo has called off the Glass Bowl football game scheduled here Dec. 1.

Athletic Director Barney Francis said the university had received no encouragement from several schools contacted as probable opponents.

He also said the uncertainty of weather in December was a prime reason for the decision.

Glass Bowl games were started in 1946 and except for last year have been played every year since.

The school has announced that only limited spring football practice will be held next year and that players wishing to participate in other spring sports will not be required to report for the grid sessions.

No explanation was given for curtailing the drills, but it was believed an economy measure rather than a step toward de-emphasizing the sport.

Club Owners Eye Baseball Draft

Fireman Page Among Big Names Listed

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK, Nov. 15—(AP)—For the price of $10,000—a good day's hot dog and beer take—any big league club can have Joe Page, the guy reliefer of the 1947-49 champion New York Yankees.

Fireman Joe and 4,683 other players are on the draft list for Monday's grab bag at Cincinnati. Owners are displaying unusual interest in the bargain basement sale.

If you're a little hazy on the draft, here's how it works. The last place club in the American League—the St. Louis Browns—gets first pick of all eligible minor leaguers. Then the Chicago Cubs, last in the National. And so on through the New York Yankees No. 15, and the New York Giants, 16th and last.

28 Men Last Year

Last year the majors drafted 28 men for $269,500. That was only $3,000 short of the record set in 1947 when 29 were picked for $272,500.

Prize pick of a year ago was Morris Martin, the ex-Brooklyn lefty who wound up with a fine 11-4 record for the Philadelphia A's. Once they gave Martin a starting chance in the second half of the season, he was terrific.

Some 15 of the 28 stuck around most of the year including the No. 1 pick, George Metkovich who batted .294 for Pittsburgh.

Remember Boo Ferriss of the Red Sox? He's on the Louisville list. So is Bill Evans (8-4) who has had big league trials.

Page, who finished up at San Francisco with a 2-1 record, is on the Kansas City roster. So is Pitcher Bob Keegan, 13-9 at Syracuse, and utility infielder, Kermit Wahl.

Brooklyn Farm Club

Brooklyn's St. Paul farm has outfielder Dick Whitman (.311), second baseman Jack Cassini (.305) and reliefer Al Epperly (13-4). Anybody looking for a utility infielder might nab Gene Mauch, ex-Boston Bravo, at Milwaukee.

Montreal has a hatfull of hot shots although only one can be taken. In the draft list are pitchers Jim Hughes (10-4), Boo Alexander (15-8), Tom Lasorda (12-8) Mal Mallette (10-2) and Dan Bankhead. Marv Rickert, a former big leaguer, can be had for $10,000 from Baltimore where he led the league in 35 homers.

Some of Houston's Texas League champs turn up on the Rochester list in Catcher Les Fusselman, and Pitchers Fred Martin and Al Papai (23-9). The entire 24-man Syracuse club is in the draft but only one can go.

The Pacific Coast League, waging a battle against having its players drafted, has a flock of eligibles.

Joe Gordon, Sacramento manager, is listed but whoever takes him will have to pay his manager's contract through 1952. Marv Rotblatt, the half pint lefty who had a 4-2 record for the White Sox, is on the Seattle list as is Earl Johnson, ex-Red Sox.

Al Gettle, the pitcher the Giants bought last winter only to have him flop with a 1-2 record is among Oakland eligibles.

Nippy Jones, St. Louis Cardinal first base regular for much of the season would cost only $7,500 if taken from Houston.

And so it goes all down the line. Some bargains. Some busts. Talent being as scarce as it is, the grabbing will be furious.

Carter Cuffs Aragon To Retain Title

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 15—(AP)—World Lightweight Champion Jimmy Carter and challenger Art Aragon observed contrasting celebrations today.

Carter enjoyed a round of victory toasts after successfully defending his crown in a bruising 15-round fight last night. Aragon, the slightly tarnished golden boy of boxing here, in more subdued fashion belatedly observed his 28th anniversary, which was two days ago.

Carter belted out a unanimous decision over Aragon, flooring him twice and leaving him well-beaten at the end.

A star-studded crowd, as well as a national television audience, witnessed the title clash. Jack Dempsey, Leo Durocher, Joe DiMaggio, Mickey Walker, Joey Maxim, Barney Ross and Bob Hope turned out.

Aragon took the play in the opening rounds and the outlook seemed dark for the 27-year-old champion. But Aragon ran into a bristling left hook that floored him for a three-count in the sixth round, and he took a severe beating in the last four rounds. It left him with one eye almost shut and the other cut and bloody.

Picks Illini Over Bucks

Michigan Choice Over Northwestern

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

NEW YORK, Nov. 15—(AP)—Halfbacks and drawbacks . . . . Homecomings and short comings . . . . Football and highballs . . . . Long roses and broken noses . . . Winners and losers . . . All are parts of the football season.

So here are some winners and losers for this weekend's games:

Michigan State over Indiana: Too much to expect Michigan State to keep the edge it showed last week in blanking Notre Dame, but only half the amount will be needed to handle the Hoosiers.

Princeton over Yale: Dick Kazmaier and his playmates annex the Big Three title for the fifth straight year. The Yales could be tougher than expected.

Illinois over Ohio State: The Illini to win but Janowicz to shine brighter than Karras in their private duel for All-America honors.

Wisconsin over Iowa: The Iowans are the nicest guests anyone could have. They never win, seldom cause opponents much concern.

Others, in a hurry:

Tennessee over Mississippi, Alabama over Georgia Tech, Stanford over Oregon State, Michigan over Northwestern, Purdue over Minnesota, Oklahoma over Iowa State, Kentucky over George Washington.

Baseball Drawing Plan For More Big Leagues

NEW YORK, Nov. 15—(AP)—Baseball is drawing up a master plan to create more major leagues.

Rejecting 10-club of 12-club versions of the current majors as "entirely unsound," a special committee has outlined plans for a new "open" classification through which entire eight-club leagues might advance to the majors.

Exact details of the steps leading from "open" to major still must be worked out. But the major leagues' special committee on Pacific Coast League problems promises the plan will be ready before the minor league meetings at Columbus early in December.

GAVILAN VS. CARTIER

HAVANA, Nov 15—(AP)—Kid Gavilan, world welterweight champion, will meet middleweight Walter Cartier in New York's Madison Square Garden in a non-title match Dec. 14.

New Rulings May Curtail Platoon System

CHICAGO, Nov. 15—(AP)—A chance for a fresh start in toning down pressure in sports is going to be given the National Collegiate Association at its convention; to be held in Cincinnati Jan. 9-12.

Included in the new proposals are:

1. Elimination of, or curtailment of, spring practice for football.

2 Consideration of the advisability of post-season contests, such as bowl football games, and reducing the number of games on a schedule.

3 Limiting the number of substitutes to be used in any one game (thus ending, or reducing, use of the platoon system in football).

4. Definite supervision of benefits given athletes in colleges, their academic progress, and standards for their admittance to NCAA colleges.

At its last convention, the NCAA voted down, by a narrow margin, the so-called "sanity code" which would have provided limits within which athletes might be recruited. The NCAA decided this might best be handled by the various colleges and their conferences.

Observers felt the new program was designed to substitute for, and might possibly go beyond, the once-refused recruiting plan.

Three Main Events On Armory Card

Three main events are listed for the weekly wrestling card tonight at the armory.

Joe Wolfe and Bill Zimovich will meet in one 60-minute bout and Juan Hernandez takes on George Macricostas, the Golden Greek, in another. The final match throws Al Tucker into the ring against George Drake.

The first match starts at 8.30. Tickets are on sale at Markert and Lewis or may be purchased at the armory.

PEPPER MARTIN CUT

MIAMI, Fla., Nov. 15—(AP)—The Miami Sun Sox of the Class B Florida International League will have a new manager next season H. B. Taber Jr., president of the club, announced yesterday that John Leonard (Pepper) Martin, manager for the past three seasons, had been dismissed, for several reasons.

Season Just Around Corner

Marion County Coaches, Officials In Cage Clinic

Some 100 Marion County high school coaches and superintendents along with players and officials of the Mid-Ohio Officials Association met last night at Claridon High School for the first joint basketball clinic held in Marion County for ten years.

The Clinic was organized and directed through the cooperation of the Marion County coaches, Chairman Herb Bennett, and the Mid-Ohio Officials Association.

Robert Harmon, prominent official from Upper Sandusky and member of the local Association acted as moderator for the clinic. He explained the new rules via chalk board and utilized members of the Caledonia and Claridon High School basketball team to simulate confusing play situations and explain new rules.

Pete Spade, Secretary-Treasurer of the No. W. District Officials Association presented various factors necessary in the proper mechanics of officiating. Mr. Spade has been active in the officiating field for over 30 years and is responsible for assigning officials to the Mid-Ohio Collegiate league.

The meeting was opened by a resume of questionnaire submitted to both coaches and officials in which both groups were asked "what do you expect of a coach" and "What do you expect of an official." Joe Cox, president of the local officials association acted as chairman for the evening program.

Forest Cagers To Open Dec. 7

FOREST, Nov. 14—The Forest High Rangers will open the basketball season Friday, Dec. 7 in a Hardin County League game at Mt. Victory.

The complete schedule is as follows: Dec. 7, at Mt. Field Judges Used To Keep Closer Eye on Passes

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 15—(AP)—Southeastern Conference field judges are being stationed on the line of scrimmage to help keep a closer eye on eligible pass receivers.

Commissioner Bernie Moore announced the change yesterday.

Moore said field judges were assigned the new position because of the growing use of flankers and spread formations. "Too many ineligible pass receivers were getting down the field," he added.

Field judges now will stand flush on the scrimmage line and directly opposite the linesman.

LAST GAME. Dale Doland, All-Mid - American Conference guard a year ago, is one of nine Miami University seniors who will be playing their last home game against Western Reserve here Saturday at 2:30 p.m. Though hampered by a knee injury this year, Doland drew particular attention in two previous seasons in throwing many of the key blocks on long runs made by Johnny Pont. Other seniors are Pont, who has a three-year average of 7 yards per trip; Capt. Don Green, tackle; Roger Brown, guard; Carmen Cozza, halfback; Joe Codiano and Jay Fry, linebackers; Milt Niergarth, center, and Dave Pershing, end.

Wyoming Dominates Football Statistics

NEW YORK, Nov. 15—(AP)—The University of Wyoming boasts the nation's top punter and punt returner as well as collegiate football's leading pass receiver, according to statistics released by the NCAA service bureau today.

Chuck Spaulding vaulted into the punting leadership with an average of 44.1 while teammate Selmer Pederson has returned 35 punts for 380 yards. End Dewey McConnell snared eight passes last Saturday to bring his season's total to 40.

Ohio State's Vic Janowicz is ranked seventh in punting with 43 punts in seven games for a 41.1 average.

Browns' Clash With Giants Called Even

NEW YORK, Nov. 15—(AP)—Even—that's the way they're calling Sunday's game here between the Cleveland Browns and New York Giants.

This is the big one, the one which may decide the American Conference championship in the National Football League, and both teams have been working extra hard in preparation.

Cleveland, with six wins in seven games, is a half step ahead of the Giants, who have a 5-1-1 record.

The Browns held a secret workout in Cleveland's gigantic Municipal Stadium yesterday. Coach Paul Brown worked his boys for more than two hours, which is about 60 minutes longer than usual for the week's first practice. But this is no ordinary game coming up.

Rain fell on the Polo Grounds but this failed to dampen Giant spirits. Coach Steve Owen used Tom Landry, normally a defensive back, in the quarterback slot to back up Charley Conerly. The Giants' No. 2 signal-caller, Travis Tidwell, is injured and has been placed on the inactive list.

Earlier this season, Cleveland edged the Giants, 14 to 13, when the New Yorkers missed an extra point.

Air Reservists Hear Lecture On A-Bomb

Members of the 9518th Volunteer Air Reserve Unit of Marion were briefed on atomic bomb effects by a representative from Group headquarters in Columbus at the regular meeting of the local unit last week.

Speaker was Lt. John W. Keller, public information officer for the 9104th Group.

His lecture was on atomic energy and the atom bomb and was illustrated by movies and followed by a question and answer period. The film illustrated how to prepare for atomic attacks to obtain maximum protection against the blast and effects of radiation.

Members of the unit attending the meeting were provided with a booklet entitled "Survival Under Atomic Attack," put out by the State Department for public distribution.

BOWLING

Twelve 200 games were rolled in the Craftsman League Tuesday night at the Marion Recreation Center. George Alber headed the list with a 235 while series laurels were captured by Tony Caprino with a 612. A 212 by Drumm was the high single in the Automotive League and a 561 by Ed Jesionek took series honors. Kirby's 214-561 was high in the Mercantile Loop. K. Wilson's 247-595 took honors in the Sportsman's League at the Palace alleys while laurels in the Marion Power Shovel League went to Anderson with a 257-586. Individual scores follow:

STILL 'BATTLING.' Attempting to rob a seemingly helpless and aging man of his overcoat in Chicago, two muscular young men discover, too late, that he is Oscar Matthew (Battling) Nelson, famed lightweight of years gone by. Nelson suffered a few bruises but flattened one assailant with a hard right. The other fled. Nelson kept coat.

Area Lumber Dealers Convene in Marion

Lumber dealers from Marion, Delaware, Crawford, Hardin and Logan counties convened Tuesday night at Hotel Harding for a meeting of district eleven, Ohio Retail Lumber Dealers Association.

George Spine of Bryan, president of the association, discussed functions of the organization. Wayne Goff of West Mansfield showed slides of his recent trip to Alaska.

Patrol Begins 18th Year

COLUMBUS, Nov. 15—(AP)—The Ohio State Highway Patrol is 18 years old today, and it's big for its age.

It has 400 officers, 300 cars, 90 motorcycles and two airplanes. It not only enforces motor vehicle laws, but tracks down cattle rustlers, reckless aviators, people who sell short weight coal and violators of truck weight and license laws.

It handles an average of 260,000 applications for driver's licenses each year.

In 1950 the patrol investigated 25,000 automobile accidents, 97 plane crashes, made 38,000 arrests, patrolled 8,000,000 miles of roadway and handed out 280,529 written warnings.

All this since it was organized, Nov. 15, 1933. Starting with 60 officers, 54 motorcycles and six cars, the patrol, in its first full year of operation, investigated only 2,930 auto accidents and arrested only 4,223 persons.

Col. George Mingle, superintendent of the patrol, said it will be enlarged to its authorized strength of 650 uniformed officers as soon as possible.

Roy Peters was elected master of Montgomery Grange at a meeting Tuesday night in the Grange Hall at DeCliff. Also elected were Bernard Coon, overseer; Mrs. Clifton Wenig, lecturer; Paul Snare, steward; David Fogle, assistant steward. Mrs. Bernard Coon, chaplain; Henry Thibaut, treasurer; Mrs. LeRoy Anderson, secretary; O. M. Roux, gatekeeper; Miss Lila Harriman, Ceres; Mrs. Howard Murphy, Pomona; Mrs. Claude Courtad, Flora; Mrs. David Fogle, lady assistant steward; Mrs. Paul Spicer, juvenile matron; LeRoy Anderson, legislative agent. Mrs. Harry Hall, home economics chairman; Mrs. Merle Kennedy, pianist. Mrs. Emerson McKelvey, chorister; Joe Miller, youth director, and Mrs. LeRoy Anderson and Mrs. Cletus Uhl, news reporters.

Miss Lila Harriman, retiring lecturer, announced the Fall Festival to be held at Meeker School Saturday under sponsorship of the Grange. The affair is open to the public.

Plans were made to help a needy family at Christmas through the Junior Service Guild project. Mrs. Oscar Murphy, retiring home economics chairman, appointed Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bloomingdale and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Coon to the refreshment committee for the Nov. 27 meeting, when a Thanksgiving program will be presented.

Detention Home Official Talks To PTA Unit

Gene White, superintendent of the Marion County Detention Home, discussed duties of officials at the Marion County Children's Home when the Silver Street PTA met Tuesday night in the school auditorium.

The meeting, conducted by Mrs. Donald Strickland, president, was opened with devotions by the Rev. James W. Hodges of the Wesleyan Methodist Church.

A group of children from the fourth grade presented several Thanksgiving songs with Miss Dorothy Buckley, fourth grade teacher, at the piano.

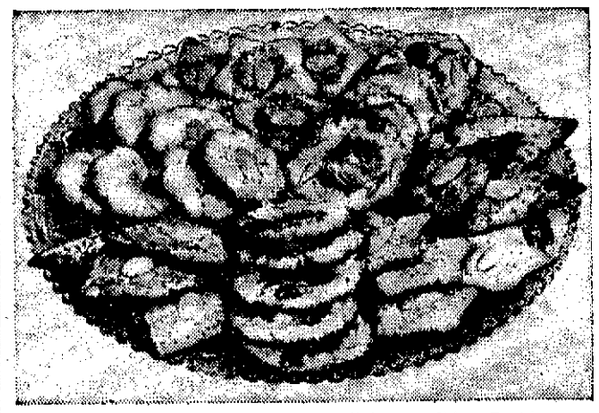
After James Hill, principal, listed needs of the school, the PTA voted to pay for repairing the ditto machine and tuning the piano in the auditorium. Future projects of the group are purchase of a public address system and film strip projector.

Roy Stapelton and Robert Thompson, pupils of the Activity Class taught by Mrs. Genevieve Bracy, presented the school and the PTA with a piano.

The group will next meet Dec. 20 with a program by the sixth grade pupils. Mrs. Clifford George was appointed chairman of the school Christmas treats.

Almonds Make Holiday Treats

COFFEE WREATH . . . For a festive breakfast



ALMOND TREATS . . . Delicious Holiday Cookies

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Many holiday recipes call for delicious blanched almonds. Almonds in or out of the shell are available in see-through bags; shelled almonds are also on the market in handy 6-ounce cans. To blanch the almonds at home just cover them with cold water and bring to a boil over moderate heat; drain at once, press off the skins with thumb and forefinger, and place the nuts on an absorbent towel to dry thoroughly. If you want to halve the almonds, split them with a small sharp knife as soon as you've pressed off their skins and while the nut meats are still warm.

When a recipe calls for "roasted" blanched almonds, put the prepared nut meats in a shallow pan and toss them with a little melted butter or margarine (1 teaspoon to 1 cup of the nuts) and roast in a slow (300° F.) oven, stirring occasionally, for 20 to 25 minutes.

CRISP ALMOND TREATS

Ingredients: ½ cup butter or margarine, 1 cup confectioners' sugar, 1 egg yolk, ¼ teaspoon almond extract, 1¼ cups sifted all-purpose flour, whole or split blanched almonds, honey, other cookie decorations (if desired).

Method: Cream butter or margarine and sugar, beat in egg yolk thoroughly. Mix in almond extract and flour. Press through cookie press. Lightly spread an almond (whole or split, depending on size of cookies) with honey and place in the center of each cookies or decorate as desired with almonds, colored candy shot, and candied cherries. Bake on ungreased cookie sheet in hot (400° F.) oven 8 to 10 minutes.

ALMOND COFFEE WREATH

Ingredients: 1 cup milk, 1 cake compressed yeast, 1/3 cup sugar, 1½ teaspoons salt, 1/3 cup melted butter or margarine, 1 egg, 1 teaspoon almond extract, 3½ cups sifted all-purpose flour, 1/3 cup chopped roasted blanched almonds, ¼ cup chopped candied fruits, confectioners' sugar frosting.

Method: Scald milk and cool to lukewarm. Stir crumbled yeast, sugar, and salt into milk. Blend in butter or margarine, beaten egg, and almond extract. Stir in half the flour and beat until smooth. Mix in almonds and candied fruits. Stir in remaining flour. Knead lightly on floured board. Place in bowl, cover closely and allow to rise in warm place until doubled in bulk. Punch dough down. Divide into halves. Divide each into three pieces, and shape into long thin rolls. Braid three strands together. Join ends to form ring and place on greased baking sheet. Allow to rise until doubled in bulk. Bake in moderately hot (375° F.) oven 35 to 45 minutes. While warm drizzle frosting over ring and decorate as desired with extra almonds and pieces of candied fruits.

NATURE DOES BETTER

JACKSONVILLE, Fla.—(UP)—G. L. Jordan took only a few stunted melons from his cultivated patch. Then he found a wild vine growing in the weeds which has produced 15 large melons.

Beefsteak prices have a precedent. A 10-pound steak sold for $48 a pound in Circle, Alaska, during the gold rush of the 1890's.

Florence Richards WCTU Meets

An all-day meeting was held by the Florence Richards WCTU Tuesday at the home of Mrs. James Barkley on Uncapher Ave. The time was spent sewing and a potluck dinner was served at noon. Thirteen members were present.

The meeting in the afternoon was opened with devotions on the theme, "One Talent and Justice," conducted by Mrs. Rose Buckley, and prayer groups for the day were formed. Plans were made to order Christmas calendars, and a letter of appeal from the Save Your Child Federation was read by Mrs. Barkley. Reports of the state convention held in October in Dayton were given by Mrs. Lloyd McCleary and Mrs. Leona Sanderson. Plans were made for a Christmas exchange to be held in December.

The program, in charge of Mrs. McCleary, included group singing, excerpts from the magazine "The Union Signal," presented by Mrs. Fred Upton, a vocal solo, "In The Hour of Trials," by Mrs. Hazel Schiller, and prayer offered by Mrs. Fred Needles. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Sanderson. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Mabel Good on Olney Ave.

Party Planned By K. of C.

"Hard Time" Event Slated Monday

A "hard time" party and square dance at Holiday Hill near Delaware next Monday night is one of several activities planned by Marion Council, Knights of Columbus, at a meeting Tuesday night in the council hall. Families and friends of the members are invited to join them for the party. Transportation plans are in charge of Charles Simonis.

Announcement was made of the annual state bowling tournament which will be held at Canton during March and April. This year the tournament will be on a handicap basis, it was announced. Joe Maloney discussed plans for a district softball league to get under way in the spring.

Richard Wortman of Kenton, district deputy, discussed plans for get-together meetings of councils in the district which includes Kenton, Upper Sandusky and Marion. These will be social affairs, he announced. Francis McDaniel, grand knight, invited the group to hold its first meeting here early in January. Tom Dowd of Kenton, a past district deputy, talked on the state youth program which he stated, deserves the whole-hearted support of all the members. Thomas E Andrews, past state deputy talked on the origin and accomplishments of the youth program which he said has the cooperation of the bishops throughout the country.

Plans were made for a memorial service for deceased members Nov 27. Lunch and a smoker followed the business session.

Junior Red Cross Council Meets

The first meeting of the Junior Red Cross City-County Council was held Friday at the Marion County chapter office with Ruth Burton, president, conducting the session.

Forty-three members representing city and county schools were present. Miss Burton and Pat Holliday demonstrated making a robe from a sheet and slippers from a newspaper.

The group made plans to have a potluck suppor during the Christmas season

Today's Birthday

LEWIS STONE born Nov. 15, 1879, in Worchester, Mass., is known to millions as a stage and screen star and to comparatively few as a topnotch soldier. He interrupted his theatrical career twice to serve as an officer with the colors—once in the Spanish American War and once in World War I. Among his best-known pictures were the Andy Hardy series "David Copperfield," and "China Seas."

Stone began his theatrical career as soon as he finished college

Galion Council Begins Pay Raise All Over Again

GALION, Nov. 15—First reading was given ordinances to raise the pay of city employes in all departments and to hike the pay of city councilmen at an adjourned meeting of Galion Council Pay raises were previously vetoed by Mayor Jay F. Nichols because they did not include all city employes

The ordinance fixing the salaries of employes at approximately $25 per month higher than they are presently receiving would be effective for all employes

Councilmen would have their pay raised from $150 annually to $216 per year, payable semi-monthly. Action was delayed on both ordinances.

The rules were suspended to pass other legislation which provides payment of a claim of Herschel Beyer in the amount of $207 for destruction of trees on his property when the city installed electric lines from the city limits to the electric light plant, and to transfer funds totaling $13,500 Part of this amount, $8,500, will go toward improvements for the electric light plant.

LARUE SERVICES PLANNED

Services of the Wesleyan Methodist denomination will be started Sunday afternoon in the Fox Theater at LaRue. Rev. Dale Duvall of Kenton will be in charge of the new congregation. The aim of the services will be to "preach the Bible and its original plan of salvation," Rev. Duvall stated. Time of the public services will be 2 o'clock.

Getting Off the Hook

By FRANK TRIPP

IF YOU occasionally dash off something cute or sentimental, send it to a magazine and promptly get it back with the sad news that "it's good—but," don't be discouraged. I know scores of magazine folks, yet it took me 50 years to get off their hook.

One reason may be that for 45 of those years I've let them alone; except to hoist a friendly tumbyar when we meet. Can't say the same will happen to you but one of them finally asked me to do a story for his periodical.

By then the thrill of such an experience was greatly dulled. For I'd written millions of words that were exposed to millions of newspaper readers every week, and an enthusiasm can become as routine to writers as to brides.

TRIPP

Thus when the unexpected order came its principal effect was to revive memory of the lean first years when I sweat blood and shed tears trying to crash the magazines.

The reminiscence should have made me laugh for I tried some weird literary stunts back then, if you'll accept the word literary as covering any combination of words set upon paper. Instead of laughing I got sorry for the me of those struggling times when I sought money with which to eat rather than fame in which to wallow.

There was no field into which I did not venture; science, art, drama, fiction, humor, verse. Ultimately, it dawned upon me that editors own encyclopedias, too; that I hadn't yet lived long enough to add much to what had already been written and that my only God-given talent was ability to observe and tell what I saw. In other words I finally concluded that I was just a reporter.

TO HAVING REACHED that conclusion and making the best of it I now attribute the small writing success which the years have brought. It set me back to earth and I gave all that I had to the place where I belonged—the newspaper.

But before I was forced to accept that destiny I had bombarded every magazine in the country with a wide variety of offerings upon which I toiled deep into the night. It was when I came near selling one, but didn't, that I got the tip on what was the matter, and quit the effort. I was writing too much about things of which I knew too little.

Strangely enough, the bit I nearly sold was akin the topic which 50 years later I have been hired to write; something of which I really had some knowledge. The Youth's Companion wrote me that they'd put it on the copy hook and when it was published I'd get ten bucks. It never got off the hook.

The morsel that almost made the grade was a lowly squib; a tale no one else could tell—I thought. When my dad couldn't buy me one of the then expensive two-wheeled bicycles, I put one rear wheel of my velocipede in the middle of its two-wheeled rear axle; held it centered by a piece of pipe on either side of it—and had a two-wheeler.

It intrigued the kids and they'd swap me a ride on their shining new safeties for one on my wooden iron-tired conversion. The yarn of my boyhood was saleable but I'd withhold it. I'd been busy trying to outwrite Seneca, Homer and Ade.

ONCE DISILLUSIONED, I began to write about commonplace things and of humble people whom I met. When I turned my efforts in to the paper where I worked, instead of pestering magazines, my jobs began to get better and pay me more. That's why I've stuck to the one love.

Perhaps I could have sold a lot of stories to magazines these last 45 years, but I never tried. Then, out of a clear sky one of them asks me to do a piece on the bicycle craze of the glamorous Nineties—and I did.

I was tempted to start it with the velocipede yarn, but remembered that it never got off Youth's Companion's hook. Instead I delved into memory of the romantic 1890s and told why and how it was the bicycle that made the Nineties gay; something I saw, of which I was a part. This one got off the copy hook, Esquire's editors tell me, and will run in their December issue.

So, you discouraged contributors, take heart. Maybe in 50 years you'll make it.

Green Camp Class Presents Play

Special to The Star

GREEN CAMP —A capacity audience was in attendance at the senior class play "Spring Fever" at the township hall Friday.

The school band, directed by Claren Sommer, music teacher, played before the play. Between acts numbers were played by the clarinet quartet, and an accordion solo by Philip Seiter.

Miss Mary Eleanor Ruth entertained the cast and others at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton S. Ruth of near Green Camp after the play.

Marion Residents Attend Ohioana Library Meeting

More than 500 persons, including a large representation from Marion, attended the annual meeting of the Martha Kinney Cooper Ohioana Library Association Saturday at Columbus when native Ohioans were honored in recognition of their work.

Career medals were presented to Howard Chandler Christy, artist, and Lowell Thomas, author and radio commentator, and presentation of citations for meritorious service to the state of Ohio was made to Edward S. Thomas and Earl N. Manchester. Edward Thomas is widely known for his lectures, newspaper articles and exhibits on Ohio's natural history and Mr. Manchester is librarian and director of the libraries of Ohio State University.

The Ohioana award of 1950 in the field of literary history and criticism went to Richard D. Altick for his "The Scholar Adventurers" and the award in the field of historical biography went to Amy Kelly for her book, "Eleanor of Acuitaine and the Four Kings." In the field of personal experiences the award went to Mary L. Jobe Akeley for "Congo Eden," and special honors went to Frank Siedel for his "The Ohio Story," Marion Lewis Rennick, author of children's books and Robert S. Harper for his contribution, "Lincolniana."

Presentation of the awards to Mr. Christy and Mr. Thomas was by Mrs. Myers Y. Cooper, founder of the Ohioana Library. Mr. Thomas touched on his life in Ohio and gave interesting highlights of some of his travels. Of especial interest was the reference to his trip into Tibet with his son, Lowell Thomas Jr.

Greetings were extended by Governor Frank J. Lausche and talks included one by Ernest J. Wessen, editor-in-chief of "One Hundred and Fifty Years of Ohio Authors and Their Books," to be published in connection with the sesqui-centennial celebration of the state.

Mrs. Howard L. Bevis presided and toastmistress for the luncheon was Mrs. Depew Head, executive director of the association and a former resident of Marion. The meeting was held at the Neil House.

Progressive Grange Names New Officers

Named to serve with Mr. Mack were Ivan Bechtel, overseer; Miss Alice Price, lecturer; Clifford McMahan, steward; William Veness Jr., assistant steward; Mrs. Robert Blank, chaplain; Howard Click, treasurer; Mrs. Vernon Gruber, secretary; Rollin R. Fox, gatekeeper; Miss Alys Fox, Ceres; Miss Eleanor Mitchell, Pomona; Miss Jean Bobbee, Flora, Miss Jean Click, lady assistant steward; Miss Carolyn Fox, pianist; Mrs. Margaret Zachman, assistant pianist; Mrs. Cecil Davis, chorister; Lewis Wickersham, member of the executive committee; Mrs. Jack Danner, Juvenile matron; and Mrs. Edwin Lusch, assistnat Juvenile matron.

Mr. Mack presided for the meeting in the absence of Oscar Ruth, master. The first and second degrees were given a new candidate, Hurley Price, and the Grange voted to give a donation in response to an appeal for aid from the Neelyville Grange in Morgan County.

Mr. Wickersham announced plans for a "white elephant sale" to be held at the next meeting, Nov. 27, in charge of the ways and means committee. It will be an open meeting. On sale during the evening will be baked goods, articles of handwork, and white elephants of all kinds. The Juvenile Grange will be in charge of refreshments.

HEAP BIG WINTER

LEWISTON, Mont.—(UP)—Joe Eagle Claw, a Gros Venture Indian who accurately predicted a mild winter a year ago, sees "a heap' big winter coming." Eagle Claw said he observed that "white men all have big woodpiles."

Green Camp 4-H Clubs Observe Achievement Week

The three Green Camp 4-H Clubs held a joint achievement meeting recently at the Knights of Pythias Hall in Green Camp. The program was in keeping with National 4-H Club Achievement Week,, and was attended by 37 members and parents.

Marilyn Lindley sang the 4-H pledge, followed by the 4-H song, "Dreaming." Lloyd Lutz, associate county agricultural extension agent, gave a talk and showed slides about Marion County 4-H Clubs, and Miss Lois Simonds, county home demonstration agent, spoke on the history of 4-H.

The program also included vocal duets by Kitty Kempton and Norma Cleland, and Rebecca Converse and Martha Barber, and a poem read by Helen Kennard.

Mr. Lutz awarded certificates to the four advisors present, Vernon Beaver, boys' advisor, Mrs. Vivien Converse and Mrs. Ruth Wolfinger, advisors of the Green Camp Junior Busy Bees, and Mrs. Frances Davis, advisor of the Senior Busy Bees. Mr. Beaver awarded certificates and pins to the members of his club who were present.

Akron Lady Lost 38 Lbs. With This Rennel Recipe

Rennel Has Been A Blessing To Thousands

"I am 43 years of age and have used Rennel for the reduction of my weight. I have found it very satisfactory in every way," writes Mrs. Otto J. Reich, 735 Moraine Ave., Akron 10, Ohio. "I don't have that nervousness that so often goes with reducing and I have lost 38 lbs. I don't have that stuffy feeling after eating either. I shall continue the use of Rennel to lose weight as necessary, and to keep my weight down to 135 lbs., which is my goal. Rennel has been a wonderful blessing to me and I can honestly recommend it."

Imagine, eat plenty and lose weight with this simple yet effective amazing home recipe. After purchasing a bottle of Rennel from your druggist pour the contents into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Take two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it. No diets to complicate your meal planning. No expensive vitamins to fortify your system from weakness while going without food for you can eat normally. If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose pounds of bulky fat and help regain slender, more youthful curves—if reducible excess fat doesn't seem to disappear almost like magic just return the empty bottle to the manufacturer for your money back. Insist on and be sure to get genuine Rennel.

New Plan Originated at OWU

Students To Try Hand At Home Management

Special to The Star

DELAWARE, Nov. 15 — Home economics majors at Ohio Wesleyan University will have the opportunity to put textbook theory into practice when Ohio Wesleyan's new 10-room home management house opens next semester.

Groups of six to eight coeds will take turns living for six weeks as a family unit in the University-owned home. There they will meet problems and gain a practical understanding of the principles that lead to a well-managed home.

Teach Management

The purpose of the project according to Miss Lelia Massey, chairman of the Department of Home Economics, is to teach management in the house so that students will have an understanding of the principles of time, energy, and money management as they relate to family goals.

They will learn the ways of housecleaning and care through the most effective equipment and methods. The women will also do the marketing, prepare meals, and make that all-important item —money for running the house—balance.

The students will be given a set amount of money per day on which to live. Within that amount, they will serve meals that are both nutritionally adequate and attractive. Entertaining on a limited budget, but with finesse, will also claim a share of student time.

Already Busy

Classes in home furnishing already are busy evaluating color charts and fabrics as they plan the decorating scheme for the interior of the house. They also are determining what kind of furniture will look well in the house and how much they can afford to pay for it.

The home management class is selecting kitchen equipment. These students are setting up a kitchen plan to decide where to locate the preparation area and the clean-up area, so that meals can be prepared with the least effort. They have been delving into research studies that cover such aspects of efficient home management as kitchen surface and floor covering, and where to store kitchen utensils.

Mis Massey believes that learning how to carry on the physical activities in the home is a means to an end and not an end in itself. A good home manager will have the time and energy to put into the more permanent interest of the home and society.

Should Have Goals

The home management house can be compared to a business or industry. According to Miss Massey, no company is set up without having goals. Similarly, homes should also have goals.

The students in the home management house will hold weekly meetings to make plans for working toward their goals just as businesses have regular executive board meetings.

Businesses spend time on time and energy studies and on the problem of work loads and determining what jobs to give which people. Ohio Wesleyan's home management house also will have a plan of fair distribution of work.

AN ATOMIC BLAST is what Madge Journey of Los Angeles calls this drink she is holding at Las Vegas, Nev., near the A-bomb testing grounds. It contains a base of grenadine, vodka and orange juice with a float of high-proof rum that is burned off. The customary atomic mushroom is imagined, but Nevada residents say the effect is felt in a wide radius.

Caledonia Lodge Elects Officers

Election of officers for the new year was held at a meeting of Oliver Lodge 447, Free and Accepted Masons, of Caledonia Monday night, Nov. 5.

J. S. Cochran was elected worshipful master, J. A. Coldwell, senior warden, William Clark, junior warden, Arthur Furniss, treasurer, Jack E. Durham, secretary, J. C. Chappell, senior deacon, Earl O. Davis, junior deacon, and William Bass, Tyler.

Legion Head Speaks at Banquet

Members of the T. B. Johnston Post No. 329 of the American Legion and the Auxiliary heard State Department Commander C. W. Whitemyer give an Armistice Day talk at the annual Legion Banquet Nov. 10 at the Edison High School.

Mrs. Adam Frederick of Cleveland, a volunteer of the Crile Veteran's Hospital activities group spoke on conditions at the hospital as well as showing a film on different activities carried on at the hospital.

Commander Whitemyer, stated that people today, do not realize that we are in a war, that casualties are as great as in World War II.

We must have a United American freedom of worship, a free strong America that will guarantee peace, and the survival of civilization, Commander Whitemyer said.

Special Union Co. School District Election Set Dec. 11

Special to The Star

MARYSVILLE — A special election has been called in the recently formed Northwestern school district of the Union County schools system on Dec. 11 for a vote on a five-mill levy for two years. The district is composed of the former Liberty, York, Taylor and Peoria Special districts.

The Court of Appeals now has under consideration a suit filed by a group of York district citizens against a county Common Pleas Court decision that the district was legally formed by the county board of education.

Love Triumphant

By ADELE GARRISON

"Yes, the shops will be open in another hour," I told Dicky, "and we want to be there then."

"Is Lillian going with you?" he asked next, and I gave him an answering grin to the one which accompanied his question. We both know the aversion Lillian has to shopping for clothing, although she is an unusually well-dressed woman. But she has the faculty of walking into a shop, knowing beforehand the color, texture, style and price she wishes, and makes her purchase in less than a quarter of an hour. I could imagine her reaction to an invitation to accompany us.

"Look out she doesn't rend you limb from limb," he retorted.

"I'll have to risk that," I said. "I'm going to 'remember my manners' and 'be a lady' if it kills me."

"It probably will," he gibed, "the 'lepard changing its spots,' etc., but keep the chin up, and remember I'm rooting for you.'"

"I'll tell Lillian that," I said. "It may soften her wrath."

"It probably will act as a goad," he said, laughing. "Now, suppose you get the heck back to your guests, break the news that I'm on the way to New Haven. Also, tell Mildred when you can get her alone, that Dad is arranging to have Bill get leave and that he will be able to join her on the journey up. Have her delay her own return until after Bill telephones her here to make arrangements."

"I'll not tell her that until after the shopping trip," I said. "She won't know whether she's buying evening gowns or slacks."

"Well, you know the female mind," he told her, and then added a laughing injunction.

"No, if you'll just point your tootsies toward the door," he said, "I can concentrate on packing my toothbrush and sich. I'll be traveling light, but I'll take a bag in case of emergency."

I waved him an airy mocking farewell, and went back to the living room, where I found Harry and Lillian absorbed in the morning newspapers, while Bess Conway and Mildred Grey were talking in muted tones, at a "mile-a-minute" rate, patently discussing their projected trip to the shops. But, as I came up to them, they broke off, and looked up at me expectantly.

"Any news?" Bess asked, and I knew that she recognized the inability of Mildred to control her vocal chords for the question.

"Yes, good news," I told them. 'My husband is most enthusiastic about his assignment to talk to Bill, and is sure that he will be able to make him see reason. He is taking the next train to New Haven, and will be seeing Bill shortly after Bill himself reaches there."

Mildred's face was fairly glowing, and her beautiful eyes also showed her joy at my news.

"How wonderful!" she said. "I never can thank you and Uncle Dicky enough for doing so much for me. I only hope that some day I shall be able to do something really worthwhile for you."

"You will," I told her with conviction. "And now, have you any preparations to make for our shopping trop? You look perfectly ready for anything."

In All But 44 Counties

Former Marion Man Champion Traveler

A former Marion resident has gained the reputation of being "a man who really gets around."

He is Fred C. Zieg, whose home is in Fort Wayne, Ind.

By traveling all over the United States and also in foreign countries, Mr. Zieg has received this reputation, but maintaining it has been quite an undertaking.

So far, he has set foot in 3,029 parishes and counties in the United States, with only 44 more counties to go. After that, he can say he has been in every county in the United States.

Mr. Zieg, thus far, has motored 258,217 miles in his own automobile, has traveled 8,895 miles by train, 120 miles by interurban, 5,073 miles by boat, 403 by bus and 535 by plane. Mr. Zieg's venture started more than 20 years ago.

.. Father In Lumber Business ..

Mr. Zieg's father was Christian Zieg Jr., who operated a lumber business at Lynn Station, south of Marion, for many years. Both his father and mother are dead. A brother of Mr. Zieg is Walter W. Zieg, who lives at 440 E. Church St.

To complete his project of visiting every county in the U. S., Mr. Zieg has planned a 3,200 mile trip for next summer. He will attempt to make three counties in Arizona, six in New Mexico, one in Colorado, one in Oklahoma, 25 in Kansas, four in Missouri and four in Nebraska.

Through the course of his travels, Mr. Zieg has crossed every bridge that spans the mighty Mississippi and by actual count he has crossed the Continental Divide 35 times. When Mr. Zieg discovered that through his travels he had been in all the 48 states, Alaska, Cuba, all the Canadian provinces, the Mexican border states, Newfoundland and Europe, he decided to "make it a clean sweep."

122 Degrees Above

Of particular interest to Mr. Zieg in his travels have been his trip into Death Valley in 1934 when the temperature was 122 degrees, a trip to Lake Placid, N. Y., when the mercury dipped to 42 degrees below zero, flight over the Arctic Circle, and, of course, such places as Yellowstone Park, Lake Louise, Lake Tahoe, St. Augustine, Fla., the Grand Canyon, Sequoia National Park, Niagara Falls, Pike's Peak and the Florida Keys, among others. He says he has found the best system of highways to be in Ohio.

Mrs. Zieg is married, his wife, Sylvia, formerly being of Fredericktown. She, along with their three sons, Bob, Dick and Tom, would sometimes accompany Mr. Zieg on his journeys when he first began his adventures, but recently he has had to travel alone.

Mr. Zieg directs the activities of the Essington Co., manufacturer of aluminum garment racks. He is the founder and former owner of Radio Station WOWO and WGL, at Fort Wayne.

Martel Grange Elects Martin

John Martin Jr. was elected to succeed Ralph Noggle as master of Martel Grange at a recent meeting. Other new officers are Richard Baldinger, overseer; Shirley Pangborn, lecturer; Richard Baldinger Jr., steward; Robert Sharrock, assistant steward; Mrs. J. K. Neff, chaplain; J. K. Neff, treasurer; Elmer Guinther, gatekeeper; Mrs. Ward Sharrock, Ceres; Mrs. Mary Middaugh, Pomona; Mrs. Raymond Pangborn, Flora; Lillian Price, lady assistant steward; Mrs. Elma Downs, pianist; Mrs. Kenneth Pangborn, chorister; Kenneth Pangborn, legislative agent, and Everett Douce, Ward Sharrock and Ralph Noggle, executive committee.

The Grange will sponsor two Christmas baskets for needy families through the Junior Service Guild. At the next meeting, Arthur Smith, county agricultural extension agent, will speak about Farmers Institutes. A tea towel shower for the school cafeteria will be held.

PLENTY OF FIRE

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. —(UP)—Burt Wilkinson may not have set the world afire but no one can accuse him of not trying. A pipe smoker, Wilkinson says he has kept count of all the matches he has lighted in the last 20 years and the total is now more than 5,000,000.

Crestline Boys Still Hospitalized

Special to The Star

CRESTLLINE—Joey Rice and Melvin Eckert, seriously burned in the sewer gas explosion in Crestline Oct. 25 are still confined to Children's Hospital in Columbus.

They are reported by their parents as improving and most of the major skin grafting has been done.

It is possible that they may be removed in two weeks to their homes here but will have to be taken back to the hospital for spot grafting.

CIRCULATION SLOW

BERKELEY, Calif., —(UP)—It takes 35 minutes for blood to circulate through the body of a bug, according to an insect physiologist, Roderick Craig, of California University's agricultural college. The determination, Craig said, was made by shooting radioactive phosphorus into the blood stream of the insects.

Area Legion Meeting Set

Post Leaders To Convene Here Nov. 20

Fred W. Thacker, commander of Marion Post 162, American Legion, today announced a special meeting of Legion posts in this section of the sitae will be held in Marion, Tuesday night, Nov. 20.

The special meeting was called by C. W. Whitemyer, department commander of the American Legion of Ohio, for the purpose of sparking the 1952 Legion programs.

Expected to attend from Marion besides Commander Thacker is the adjutant of Post 162, Richard Moore, and the commander and adjutant of Post 584, Chris Lagos and Gerald E. Wynn, respectively.

Thacker will preside at the meeting. Sixth District Commander Victor Wick of Waldo and Vice Commander Joe Smith of Mt. Sterling and field representatives of the Legion, Spencer K. Brittain and Jack Macrea, both of Columbus, will speak.

Sauce Gives Chicken Fricassee Added Zest

QUESTION most overhead in the kitchen of new young cooks: "Mirror, mirror on the wall, how can I be the best cook of all?" There's no one answer of course, but often imagination and dressing up old favorites in new costumes can turn mere cooks into extraordinary chefs and hungry husbands into gourmets

Here to help them win a reward of praise for clever cooking is chicken fricasee, an old favorite from way back, in a new version—served with a flavorful sauce. It proves how simple it is to be economical and have a dish that's rich in taste.

CHICKEN FRICASSEE

4-4½ lb. chicken
2 large onions, sliced
4 carrots, sliced
1 Bay leaf
1 t salt
6 peppercorns
Water

Have butcher cut up chicken as for frying. Place in large pan with sliced onions and carrots, bay leaf, salt and peppercorns. Add water just to cover. Cover pan and bring to a boil. Reduce heat and simmer gently until chicken is tender (1 to 2 hours depending on its age). Cool, drain chicken and remove bones. Strain 1 cup stock and reserve it for sauce.

Fricassee Sauce: Melt ¼ cup butter or margarine in saucepan over low heat. Blend in ¼ cup flour. Add ¼ teaspoon salt and dash of cayenne pepper. Add 1 cup chicken stock by thirds, blending thoroughly after each addition. Cook stirring constantly until sauce thickens and looks satiny and smooth. Remove from heat. Add 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, 1 teaspoon at a time Combine 1 egg yolk and 1 cup milk slowly add to sauce Reheat, stirring constantly, but do not allow to boil Remove from heat, pour over chicken and serve with rice. Serves 6.

Children Take Oath, Become U.S. Citizens

Three children of Mr. and Mrs. James Finley of 294 Glad St. received derivative certificates of naturalization Tuesday when they took the oath of allegiance to the United States at the Immigration and Naturalization Department in Columbus. The oath was administered by James Hanucon of that department.

The youngsters, who were born on Polee Island, Canada, in Lake Erie, are Juanita, 14, Edward, 12, and Eleanor, 10. The island was also the birthplace of their mother, who received her citizenship in June 1944.

Mr. and Mrs. Finley came to Marion 10 years ago. They have two other children, Sarah, 9, and Martin, 7, both born in Marion.

DR. J. L. KRIDER

Krider Named By McMillen

Made Vice President, Director of Sales

The appointment of Dr. J. L. Krider to the position of vice president and director of feed sales of McMillen Feed Mills, was announced today.

Dr. Krider joined McMillen Feed Mills in July, 1950, as director of feed research and education. In his new capacity, he will be responsible for distribution of Master Mix Feeds and McMillen Farm Supplies throughout the company's entire trading area, which comprises the midwest, middle Atlantic and southern states. He will also have executive responsibility for research and sales training activities.

Prior to joining McMillen, Dr. Krider had distinguished himself in the field of animal nutrition. He was formerly head of the swine division, Department of Animal Science at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture.

Dr. Krider will make his headquarters at the executive offices of McMillen Feed Mills in Fort Wayne, Ind.

McMillen operates a soybean processing plant in Marion.

Union Co. Boy Wins 4-H Dairy Sectional Award

Special to The Star

MARYSVILLE—Wayne Rausch, 20, of near Unionville Center, has won the sectional championship for dairy achievement in 4-H work as well as the Ohio championship and will compete for the national title at the 4-H Congress in Chicago.

Rausch, a member of Darby Valley Producers 4-H Club and a junior at Ohio State, won his state title this fall and his record was entered in one of the twelve sectional contests in Chicago. His sectional victory there won him a free trip to the National Congress of 4-H in December.

A 10-year member of 4-H clubs who has completed 29 projects, Rausch won on his project of maintaining and building up a Holstein herd and keeping complete records. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rausch of near Plain City.

Three other Union County 4-H members have also won state championships and free trips to the national event and competition for national championships. They are Mary Alice Howard, Milford Center, food preparation, nutrition and the demonstration team of Sarah Thompson and Barbara Anderson, Raymond.

Work Both Sides of Political Fence

Southern Democrats In Strategic Position

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15—(AP)—Talk among top Southern Democrats of bolting their party if President Truman runs again merely illustrates a political reality which seems to be overlooked when people speak glibly of our two-party system, Democratic and Republican.

The Southern Democrats, whenever they choose to vote as a bloc in opposition to the regular Democrats in Congress, in effect become a third party. They are solidly strong enough to hamstring the regular Democrats any time it pleases them to do so.

The party winning a congressional election is the one which wins a majority of the seats in Congress. In recent years the margin of majority between Democrats and Republicans has been pretty slim. Any time the Southern Democrats wish to break away from the regular Democrats and team up with the Republicans on any item of legislation they can turn the regulars into a minority.

And because of their solidarity the Southern Democrats, when they wish, can block fulfillment of campaign promises made by the Democratic organization. The most spectacular example, of course, always occurs in the field of civil rights.

THE LATEST example of this came a couple of years ago, following the 1948 campaign promise of the regular Democratic party to pass civil rights legislation. This undoubtedly drew the vote of a lot of Negroes living in northern cities.

But when the Truman Democrats, having won, attempted to bring up a civil rights bill the Southern Democrats in the Senate broke away and filibustered. All the Republicans had to do was sit back and enjoy the spectacle of the two factions in the Democratic party working against each other. In the end the southerners won—for the Trumanites surrendered — and that was the last attempt by the Trumanites to pass any of the civil rights legislation promised in 1948.

NEVERTHELESS, in any election where the Democrats as a national party win a majority of congressional seats the Southern Democrats get the gravy. In Congress the gravy is chairmanship of the committees, which carries with it the most power and prestige in Congress.

(Automatically members of the newly-elected majority party become chairmen of every committee. In 1947-48 the Republicans, who had won a majority in the 1946 elections, headed all the committees but had to surrender them in 1949 to the Democrats who won their majority back again in the 1948 elections.)

As an example of gravy to the South: in the present Congress where Democrats have a majority, southerners are chairmen of eight of the 15 standing committees in the Senate and 10 of the 19 standing committees in the House.

CHAIRMANSHIP is based on seniority. In the South, where there are hardly any Republicans at all, almost everyone elected to Congress is a Democrat. Through this one-party system the Southern Democrats manage, a lot of them, to get re-elected year after year. This builds up their seniority in Congress and puts them in line for chairmanships.

If the Southern Democrats bolted and helped elect a Republican president in 1952, the Republicans would probably win a majority of the congressional seats, too. This would cost the southerners their chairmanships. But hardly their congressional seats since they'd undoubtedly be re-elected themselves.

War Is Atrocious

AN ATROCITY-SLAYING report by the Eighth Army's judge advocate section chief seems to have been timed to stiffen morale at the beginning of the second winter of war in Korea. The information that 5,790 U N. prisoners of war have been killed since the Korean war began affirms what really needs no affirmation—that the enemy is ruthless, savage and unprincipled. All but a handful of the dead were Americans.

Besides the prisoner-of-war killings reported, many thousands of South Korean fighting men have been killed when they were unarmed and helpless. In addition have been the killings of tens of thousands of civilians. The Korean war is already established as one of the bloodiest in all history; it is in the best modern tradition.

It is total war. In total war, the aim of both sides is to inflict maximum damage on the other side—on fighting men and on civilians supporting fighting men. Wholesale slaughter is the objective. Bombers inflict death from overhead. There are no rules either on the battlefield or behind the lines which cannot be broken for the sake of causing death and destruction. And hanging over the shambles is the imminent threat of atomic explosions which would make everything else seem inconsequential.

Ruthless, savage and unprincipled as the North Koreans and Red Chinese have proved themselves to be, they cannot be accused of having invented total warfare. They merely have been apt pupils of the West.

Lightest of the Dark Horses

THE enthusiasm of his California friends for his presidential possibilities is reflected by Governor Earl Warren in his decision to let them seek convention delegates in his name.

Governor Warren, himself, is an enthusiastic person. Moreover, he understands the importance to California of going to the next Republican convention with its own presidential candidate.

As Thomas E. Dewey's running mate in the 1948 campaign, Governor Warren made numerous friends. He makes friends wherever he goes. In his own state he has so many admirers that it is perfectly logical for him to count his friends in both parties.

All in all, it was to have been expected that Earl Warren would throw his hat in the ring at about this time, to give his friends the advantage of going to work for his candidacy in the open. He is the lightest of the dark horses in the 1952 race for the Republican presidential nomination. The race had only one entry before Governor Warren—Senator Taft of Ohio, far out ahead and running by himself.

Malthus Up To Date

NORRIS E. DODD, director of the United Nations food and agricultural organization, is on record with a warning that hunger is driving the world toward revolution and war.

This is taking place, he explains, because food production simply cannot keep pace with population increases. Moreover, the distribution of food is faulty. Well-fed populations are wasting food while underfed populations are doomed to perpetual hunger. Hence, the incentive to fight for more to eat. It is a grim prospect that Mr. Dodd unfolds.

It was grim in 1798 when Thomas Malthus, an English curate and economist, wrote "An Essay on the Principle of Population." He said that populations increase in geometric ration while the food supply increases in arithmetic ratio and that this must lead to revolution, war, disease, poverty and vice, unless the increase of populations can be checked.

Malthus didn't see much hope of checking it and died in 1834 a confirmed pessimist. Director Dodd seems to be headed in the same direction. In fact, the only optimists on this subject are Americans, temporarily blessed with a food surplus which makes them the most envied and most hated people on earth.

Time To Think

WINSTON CHURCHILL, a pretty fair politician with most of his future behind him, worked a cute shenanigan on the Socialists the other day to get them out of the way for nearly two months. He proposed a 53-day Christmas holiday for Parliament and pushed it through the House of Commons with 37 votes to spare.

The breathing spell will be used, Churchill explained, for quiet non-political study of Britain's problems. That is almost a startling idea in these days when politicians claim to have an answer for everything.

The truth is that neither in Britain nor the United States do politicians have an answer for everything. Politics is the most sterile of the arts. Its practitioners, in the absence of thought, become addicted to speech to conceal their shortcoming. When the speech leads to action, as it did in the case of the Labor party's program of socialism, the mischief is done.

It will take longer than a long Christmas holiday to undo socialism in Britain, but that is the right way to start—with some quiet non-political study for a change.

Amazing Red Signs

By David Lawrence

Revelations of Senate Security Probe Recorded

WASHINGTON

MEMBERS OF CONGRESS and observers who have just had a chance to read the printed record of the Senate Internal Security committee are beginning to express amazement at the apparent influence of Communist sympathizers on American government policies, especially in the Far East.

The testimony is really sensational, and when Senator McCarran, Democrat, chairman, advised recently that judgment be suspended till the rest of the record could be made available, he was undoubtedly hinting at further revelations to come.

LAWRENCE

What is clear already is that the Senate subcommittee headed by Senator Tydings of Maryland, Democrat, last year failed to take advantage of the opportunities it had to uncover some of the very things now being disclosed.

Thus, in the new testimony are to be found the statements of Alexander Barmine, who is employed at present by the Department of State as chief of the Russian unit of the "Voice of America." Mr. Barmine testified that he was at one time in the Soviet diplomatic service and was also a retired brigadier general and served in military intelligence of the Soviet army. He declared under oath that in talks with General Berzen, head of the Soviet intelligence, the names of certain Americans were mentioned as "our men."

IT TURNS OUT that some of these same persons were under scrutiny by the Tydings committee and were apparently exonerated by its report. Yet it is revealed now that, while the FBI interrogated Mr. Barmine, the Tydings committee never summoned him to testify and, so far as the record shows, the Tydings committee did not obtain from him what the FBI did.

This raises anew the question of why the Tydings committee failed to make a thorough investigation. Page after page of the printed testimony of the McCarran committee raises doubts concerning various persons mentioned in the hearings or referred to in documents obtained from the files of the Institute of Pacific Relations. Why didn't the Tydings committee do something about that phase of the investigation which the FBI had conducted? The following colloquy is an interesting example:

"Sen. Ferguson: Now did the FBI have in substance all of the matters you have brought to our attention here this morning?

"Mr. Barmine: I believe so, yes.

"Sen. Ferguson: They had that prior to the so-called Tydings hearings on the question of Communists in government?

"Mr. Barmine: Yes, sir.

"Sen. Ferguson: Did any of the lawyers for that committee question you?

"Mr. Barmine: No . . .

"Sen. Ferguson: If the FBI had given aid to the Tydings committee, as I understand the Tydings committee claimed they had all the information from the FBI, I am just wondering why this was not brought out at that time.

"Chairman McCarran: Senator, can you do any more than wonder about it?"

FACTS ABOUT the indifference to FBI material are gradually being revealed to a public which has believed implicitly that, because the FBI was and is on the job, no Communists suspected of disloyalty or as bad security risks could possibly go without being exposed or prosecuted.

But the FBI does not prosecute unless the criminal division of the Department of Justice orders it done. Likewise, much evidence which might create doubts as to loyalty or security of an individual sufficient to cause a loyalty board to render an adverse judgment against him would not always be adequate to obtain a conviction in court because of the vagueness of the statutes.

Lately there has been some public discussion that senators who make charges about disloyalty should present their evidence to the Grand Jury or shut up. But it is not the function of members of Congress to prosecute or to appear before grand juries. It is the function of committees to investigate many cases which do not involve specific violations of law but which do involve government security or retention by an employe of his post in the government.

Thus, Alger Hiss was not caught by the FBI or by the Department of Justice in the first instance, though reports about him were submitted to the State Department by the FBI and ignored. It was the House Un-American Activities Committee which caught Hiss in a lie and forced the trial on perjury charges.

So congressional inquiries have an important place in the drive to rid the government of Communist sympathizers, and that is one reason why much of the work left undone by the Tydings committee is now being thoroughly done by the McCarran committee. The testimony, copies of which are obtainable at the government printing office, is the most sensational material yet made available to the public on the subject of communistic activity in our government, and the largest part of the revelations has never been published in the press or over the radio.

Item on Mrs. Branco

By TRUMAN TWILL

EVERYBODY else with easy access to a typewriter has written something about the bride of Dom Francisco Dacamara Decastelo Branco, so why should we be different?

Mrs. Branco is the former Conchita Cintron Verrill, daughter of the form Loyola K. Verrill of Connecticut. Her father was born in Puerto Rico of Spanish parents, attended West Point and now is in the export-import business in Peru. So far, this reads like a social item but is saved from that undistinguished fate by the fact Mrs. Branco, now 28, began to fight bulls when she was 15 and slew 800 of these beasts before going to the altar.

She says she is through with bull-killing forever and wants to be a simple housewife from now on, which promises to be a good trick because Mr. Branco is a lion hunter. But let us return to the bulls.

What we have in mind to say on this matter is that more women should go in for work of this nature so the world can be emancipated finally from the nonsense that some occupations are forever barred to women. In the meantime, more men should learn to cook and fuss over housekeeping trivialities, to the end that some day there will be no more occupational barriers whatever against the sexes.

When this happens, either a great many more things will be done by the same number of human beings, or the same things now being done will be divided up in such a way that men won't have to work so hard. For example, with women like Mrs. Branco killing 800 bulls in only 13 years, that was a lot of bulls the men bull-killers did not have to kill. They must have appreciated the lift. It helped to keep the world from being swamped by a bull surplus.

Take snow-shoveling, one of the things men do to their detriment. There is no known reason why women should not take their turn at this chore because it is a proved fact that no woman ever died at it and therefore the female sex must be better adapted to the job than the male sex is.

Wherever women have been invited to help out men they have done wonderfully well. As soon as they were permitted to write novels and magazine articles, they moved in and took over.

They take to advertising the way they take to mink coats and the $6.59 steak a la carte. They wrestle, play baseball, manage business enterprises, help to make up innumerable tons of surplus tobacco, own the bulk of the property in the U.S.A., and one of them now is being groomed to run the British empire.

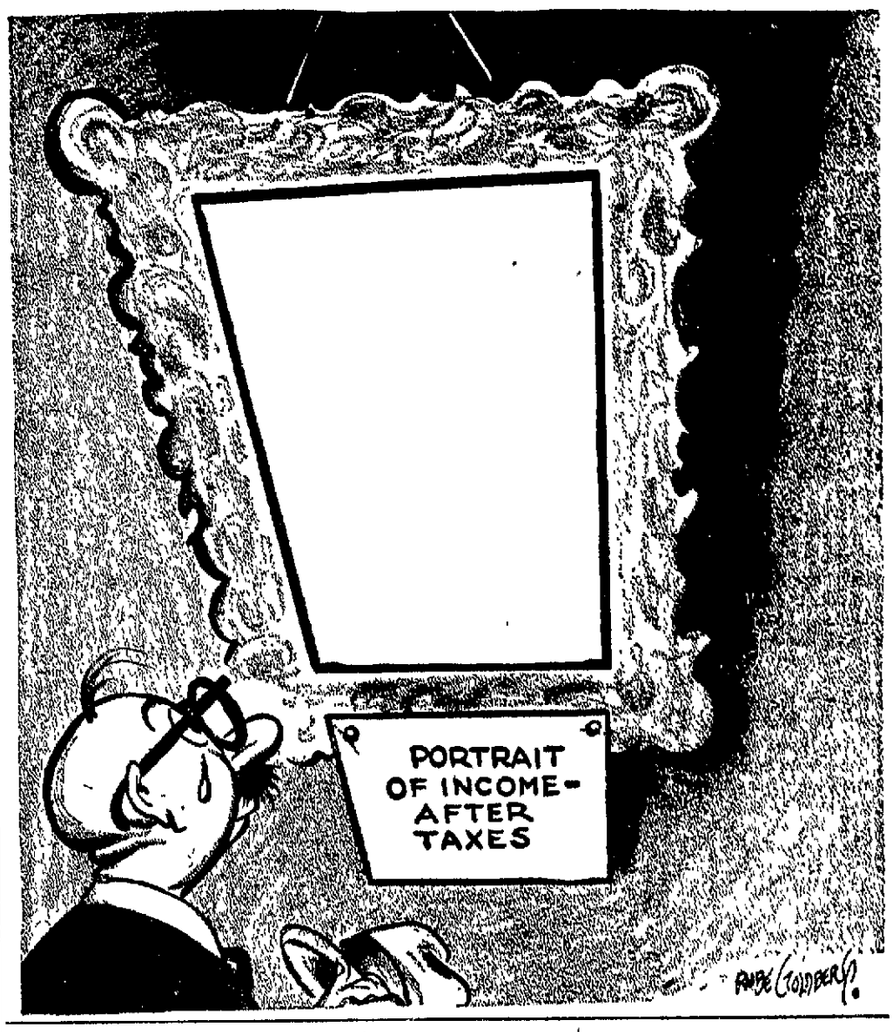
They are the big push in the supermarket grocery business, have close to a monopoly on retail buying and wear most of the clothes made in this country, but they turn skittish and girlish when it is mentioned that they might pitch in and do some of the heavy lifting. They squeal that work like that should be for men only. Tosh, tosh, little pigeons. Who are you to turn your back on Mrs. Branco, killer of 800 bulls? Have you no loyalty to womanhood? Just grab hold of that piano and bring it over here, pet.

Congress Quiz

Q—What change did Congress make in the Taft-Hartley Act?

A—The 1947 law — one of the most controversial enacted in recent years—was amended to permit employers and unions to write a union shop agreement without first polling employees. The amendment also validates union shop elections held before union leaders took non-Communist oaths. President Truman, signing the amendment into law Oct. 22, called it a "step toward improvement of our labor laws."

Sad Picture



The Doctrine of Peace and Democracy

By George E. Sokolsky

THE great value of letters from readers is that they keep a writer sweet and mellow, particularly those that attack him. For instance, I once received a letter from Joseph A. Prachar of Berwyn, Illinois, in which he told me off good and proper. He started like this:

"I find most of your comments primarily motivated by misunderstanding of all our democratic ideals and institutions. Your remarks smack of blind patriotism nationalism. . ."

SOKOLSKY

To some of this I must plead guilty. I fear that I do suffer from the disease of patriotism, but whether it is the blind or the seeing kind, I have never bothered to discover. I also believe in nationalism. I belong to the United States of America and it belongs to me, and I measure all the rest of the world from that vantage point.

Maybe that is blind and perverted, but I do not know any other way of living. There are some who can spread themselves thin into an ethereal globalism, but others must keep their feet deep in some traditional soil.

NATIONALISM appears to be fashionable again everywhere except in the United States, where such a word and its associate, "patriotism," may still be used opprobriously, as Mr. Prachar does.

Mr. Prachar, however, makes this point:

"We advocate world law and order while you preach the outdated dogma of militarism in a world of anarchy and power politics. You propose we abandon our democratic ideals by resorting to violence and destruction. You say this without realizing it."

I advocate nothing of the sort. I do advocate the defense of the United States as a nation from enemies at home and over the seas. I do advocate the maintenance of the integrity of American life, definable in its traditions since the writing of the Declaration of Independence. It is always curious to me that few of those who now say that even self-defense is anarchy and militarism, held to those views when this country was being advocated into World War I and World War II. The war against the Kaiser was to have made the world safe for an undefined democracy. World War II was to have achieved the four freedoms.

BOTH THOSE WARS seemed to me unwise and unnecessary, particularly World War II, which now gives the impression of having been an historical error. Beginning in 1938 (a year before it occurred), I began to write and speak against those who advocated war on Germany because I feared Stalin more than Hitler, communism more than nazism, and the consequences of the withdrawal of powerful nations from the periphery of the Russian empire more than the existence of a madman in the heart of Europe.

Curiously, my fears have been fully verified since 1945. They have brought us into a third war, in Korea—a war that has already cost 100,000 American casualities, including 16,480 American dead.

But not favoring wars does not mean that one blindly supports every idea for world union. None of these plans answer the question of how such a blueprint for world federation or world union or world discipline or any form of globalism can be implemented when the largest group of nations in territory, manpower and resources insists upon going its own way. The United Nations is an example of how such a power as Russia can keep the world in economic unbalance as a method of warfare.

THE ASSUMPTION that American ideals will be imperiled by maintaining this country a national unit, strong and effective and able to keep at bay a Mongol-Slav predatory force, seems to me to have no validity in fact or in logic.

The Tolstoyan concept of non-resistance, which my correspondent advocate, is a noble perhaps as the ideals of Isaiah and Micah, who loved peace, but non-resistance would be of little avail if our homes and cities were to be bombed by an enemy.

Nor can we maintain the will to survive and the capacity to defend ourselves unless our children, in each generation, are reared to love their country and its institutions. The will to survive as a nation is as important in the defense of a people as arms and munitions. Our peril is that that will to survive is being weakened, if not vitiated, by a globalism which, while soundly conceived in ideas, is unrelated to the times in which it is being advocated.

I think I shall have to risk abuse, but I prefer patriotism and nationalism.

Marion County History Brevities

By EDNA S. DUTTON

Daniel Augenstein, a native of Baden, Germany, where he was born March 8, 1822, came to America alone when but 15 years of age. He came to Pleasant Township the same year and worked by the month in Pleasant and Richland Townships for three years, at wages of from six to eight dollars. He later came to Marion and was a hostler in the Baker stables for a year. In 1841 he returned to Germany and in March of the following year he and his parents came to America, settling in Waldo Township. His father purchased 240 acres of land of R. B. Hayes, paying him $10 per acre. All except six acres of this land was covered with forest.

Petticoat Judge

RALEIGH, N. C.—(AP)—What do you call a woman judge?

Everything from the traditional "Hizzoner" to "Honey," according to Judge Susie Sharp, North Carolina's only woman superior court jurist.

"Not the least of my difficulties with my job has been to look sober as a judge at all times," she said. Of all the names uncertain attorneys have applied, the only one she really doesn't like is "Miss Judge," she said.

There is a creative power in faith which borders on the magical. Faith that rests on inner certainty is surely founded: "All things whatsoever ye pray and ask for, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them."—Mk. 11:24.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

The Better Mousetrap Man

"Yes," said The Man Who Built A Better Mousetrap, "things are really wonderful. I have had the biggest year in history. There was never a year like it. Know what that means?"

"What?" we asked.

"I may BREAK EVEN!" he declared.

"Is that good?"

"Good? It's perfect. Now economic system, you know, and all that. You have to have a terrific business, a great demand for your product and a big staff to do it."

PHILLIPS

"In the old days a businessman was able to show a loss or very poor net profit without them," we observed.

"Oh, yes. I remember when I had to have a bad year to have trouble. But the government makes it easy now in the boom years."

A volley rang out below.

"Execution squad! Our top salesmen! Had to get rid of 'em. Only way to make an example," he said.

Just then a new steam shovel arrived and began huffing and puffing.

"Another addition to the plant," explained the Man Who Built a Better Mousetrap. "It's the tax-form wing."

"You built a couple of tax-form wings last year," we remarked.

"They proved too small. We are making this one so big it will also hold all the useless federal pamphlets, bulletins, etc., including all wires from the OPS. We will call it the 'Where Am I?' addition. It will have ten thousand drawers for filing instructions nobody can fathom."

A shot was heard from below his window. "Amos Fozzle, our top efficiency and production man," he explained. "Had to get rid of him, too. He had doubled our business."

"What did you earn on the common stock this year?" we asked.

"Just forty-two cents as compared with five dollars and sixty-seven cents last year. We did so well our earnings were cut from around five million to one million and a half. Taxes, inflationary costs, legal advice, etc. I may get the DDC from Washington."

"The DDC?" we asked.

"Medal for Distinguished Dividend Cuts," he said.

"How many mousetraps did you build this year?"

"So many that I had to cut six new paths to my door," he boasted. "More mice than ever in the country."

"And you got war orders, of course?" we asked.

"Oh yes. Plant going night and day seven days a week. Terrific! Sensational! And quite depressing. I often wish I had never built a better trap. It turned out to be such an amazing success. If I had been satisfied with a run-of-the-mill mousetrap and bumbled along without getting anywhere I WOULD HAVE HAD SOMETHING TO SHOW FOR IT AT THE END OF THE YEAR."

DID you hear about the gambler who played the quarter slot machine and got three Halleys? . . . Abbott & Costello are suing Universal Pictures for five million, alleging the company's bookkeeping bewildered them. "Who's on first?" . . . We know a fellow who walked out on Quo Vadis, insisting that the lions were not the type. . . . "Thief Steals Truckload of Furs Worth $35,000"—headline. Just got a neckpiece or two, obviously. . . . News of Other Years

TEN YEARS AGO—It was Saturday, Nov. 15, 1941.

Important business location developments in downtown Marion, including construction of two new buildings, were reported scheduled for the next year. They included a new three-store building on the south side of W. Center St. for the S. S. Kresge Co., a new building, also on the south side of W. Center St., to be built by the Midwest Realty Co. of Dayton for lease to the Gallaher Drug Co., and relocation of half a dozen business places.

Adolf Hitler's high command proclaimed a "great new success" for the German navy with the announcement that Nazi U-boats severely crippled the 31,000-ton British battleship Malaya in the same attack in which the $16 million aircraft carrier Ark Royal was sunk off Gibraltar.

The marriage of Miss Mildred Irene Collins, daughter of Mrs. William E. Leck of 946 E. Center St., and Herman Paul Amann, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Amann of 195 E. Pleasant St., was solemnized at 7 a.m. in St. Mary Catholic Church.

An estimated 250 fans and friends of Jack Stephenson were in Ohio Stadium at Columbus to participate in a tribute to the big tackle who was Marion's first captain of an Ohio State eleven. Known as "Captain Jack's Day," the tribute was given just before the opening kickoff.

TWENTY YEARS AGO—It was Sunday, Nov. 15, 1931.

James F. Prendergast, 68, head of the Prendergast Lumber Co. and for many years a leader in Marion business and civic enterprises, died at his home on E. Church St.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Hogan of W. Columbia St.

Friends and relatives of Earl Stiffler gave him a surprise party at his home on the Columbus-Sandusky pike in honor of his birthday anniversary.

The Marion Pension Club, a branch of the Railroad Employes' National Pension Association, Inc., was organized and chartered in a meeting of Marion railroad workers at Labor hall. Temporary officers chosen were George Webb, chairman, N. E. Conkle, vice chairman, Charles Parshall, secretary, and R. D. Reamsnyder, treasurer.

Social Affairs

MRS. THOMAS DUNN WAS AN associate hostess when members of the Marion Alemnae of St. Mary of the Springs College met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Patrick Finan of the Windsor Apts. Plans were made for a Christmas party and gift exchange. The evening was spent socially with awards in canasta going to Mrs. Maurice Tobin and Miss Mary K. Wilmes. Refreshments were served.

MRS. L. COVERMAN, Mrs. M. Levin and Miss Rae Englehard of Bucyrus were hostesses when the Marion Section, Council of Jewish Women, met Monday at the Highway Hotel. Mrs. M. Englehard of Garrett, Ind., was a guest. The council will have as a project this year the sending of monthly parcels of kindergarten supplies to a class of children in Israel. Holiday activities include the sending of a Christmas package to Scioto Village and cooperating with the local chapter of the Red Cross in the "Christmas on the High Seas" project. The group met for luncheon and following the business session there was a social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. William Shaw of Park Blvd. entertained with a dinner Sunday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William Piper of Urbana, who were recently married. Out-of-town guests were Miss Edith Lange of Urbana and Jack Marshall of Bellefontaine. Mr. Piper is a former resident of Marion.

Mrs. Roscoe Rengert of Forest St. was hostess for a meeting of the Wit and Wisdom Club Tuesday evening. Associate hostess was Mrs. Forest Smith. Mrs. Ralph Gerfen conducted the devotions and papers on a patriotic theme were given by Mrs. Ralph Augenstein and Mrs. Howard Gearhiser. A mystery gift was presented to Mrs. Claude Cook and in contests the awards were won by Mrs. Wesley Kaelber and Mrs. J. B. Corbin. Cootie was played. Plans were made for a Christmas party Dec. 4 at Hotel Harding.

Miss Phyllis Hypes, bride-elect of Nov. 25, was complimented with a miscellaneous shower Monday night at the home of Miss Shirley Severns of 381 Fahey St. Gift table was decorated in aqua and white centered with miniature bride and maid of honor and double wedding rings. Assisting Miss Severns in serving were Mrs. Malcolm Severns, Mrs. Charles Severns and Mrs. Robert Severns. Miss Hypes will become the bride of John J. Jerew Sunday, Nov. 25, at 2:30 p.m. in Trinity Baptist Church.

Mrs. Wilbur H. Symes was hostess for a meeting of the Current Topic Club Monday afternoon at her home on Urler Rd. In observance of Armistice Day, the president, Mrs. Stuart Mills, opened the meeting with a reading, "What Is America?" Current news items were given in response to roll call.

During a business session $15 was contributed to provide six CARE packages to Korea for Christmas. It was also voted to cooperate individually with the Junior Service Guild in the "Give a Christmas" project.

The following were named to serve as a program committee for the coming season: Mrs. C. O. Stetson, chairman, Mrs. Filmore Young, Mrs. C. M. Howser and Mrs. J. E. Probst. Mrs. John Dugan presented Mrs. B. Zeisenheim in a talk on the development of the young dancer and the dance itself. Assisting was Miss Melinda Plank who demonstrated the techniques of ballet dancing. Plans were made for a bake sale and also a white elephant auction at the next meeting Nov. 26, when Mrs. J. E. Probst will be hostess. Mrs. John Plank was a guest.

Announcement of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Mary Susan Gaster to Bernard Lee Retterer is being announced by the bride-elect's father, John H. Gaster of 278 South Grand Ave. Mr. Retterer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Retterer of near Waldo. The wedding will take place Saturday evening, Dec. 22, in St. Paul's Lutheran Church at Waldo. The custom of open church will be observed for the 7:30 o'clock service.

Mrs. John J. Ryan and Miss Isabel Fye were hostesses when the Tuesday Club met Tuesday evening at Ringer's Inn. A contribution of four dollars was made to the Pan-American Scholarship Fund and it was voted to cooperate in the Red Cross "Christmas on the High Seas" project. Miss Alice Caulfield reported on the October meeting of the Federation executive board and a report of plans of the National Council of Catholic Women was given by Mrs. Carl Werley. Announcement was made of the annual husbands' party to be held Jan. 8 at Ringer's Inn. For roll call the members named favorite Ohio scenery and papers included "Ohio, Its Geography and Its People," by Miss Caulfield, "The Mysterious Prehistoric Mounds," Mrs. Hayes Cooper and "Ohio Indians," Mrs. William K. Drake. Mrs. Gaines Rush gave an article on "The Hapsburg Collection" in keeping with the observance of National Art Week. A sale of articles made by the Blind of the state was conducted. Following the program hour refreshments were served. Gourds, fruit and foliage centered the large table and smaller tables were decorated in a harvest theme.

Mrs. Ray R. King was hostess to the Woman's Century Club Tuesday night at her home on E. Church St. Plans were made to provide a Christmas box through the Junior Service Guild plan. Mrs. Jay Maish introduced Mrs. Ashley Booth, who reviewed the book, "History of Woman's Suffrage and the Woman's League of Voters," by Virginia Clark. The next meeting will be Nov. 27 at the home of Mrs. J. F. Smyth of Franklin St.

Mrs. Dale Lawrence, assisted by Mrs. Alfred LaPierre, entertained the Three Arts Club at her home Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Clara Campbell Haggerty of Elkhart, Ind., an associate member of the club and a former resident of Marion, was present. Plans to purchase a record player for the Veterans Hospital in Chillicothe were discussed. Mrs. Carl Setterfield was in charge of the program which included a review of the play, "The King and I," by Mrs. Mary L. Fisher and Mrs. Frank Fields.

TO THE WINNER — Dixie Preston, Long Beach, Calif., high school beauty, holds the trophy which will be presented to the winner of the 11th Annual All-Western Band Review to be held November 24th in her local city. Eighty bands from 11 states will take part in review.

Weddings

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Doyle of Caledonia are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Rosemary, to Richard Holycross, son of Mrs. Viola Holycross and the late Russell Holycross of Caledonia. The marriage took place Oct. 27 in Liberty, Ind., with Mr. and Mrs. George Leonard of Marion as attendants.

The bride was graduated from Caledonia High School in 1950 and is employed at the Universal Cooler Co. Mr. Holycross attended Marion Business College and works at the Fulfillment Corporation. They are living in Marion.

Miss Sue Marilyn King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schatzinger of 483 Olney Ave., became the bride Friday, Nov. 2, of Glenn Alvin Lehner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lehner, of near Marion. The couple repeated their vows at 7:30 o'clock in the evening in a candlelight ceremony in Trinity Baptist Church before the altar decorated with bouquets of chrysanthemums. The pastor, Dr. J. B. Holloway, officiated.

A program of nuptial music was presented preceding the ceremony by Mrs. Cecil Davis, organist, and William Hollaway, vocalist.

Given in marriage by her stepfather, Mr. Schatzinger, the bride wore a street length dress of light blue faille, with which she combined white hat and gloves and black shoes. She carried a white Bible topped with a purple throated orchid. Her jewelry was a rhinestone necklace and earrings, gifts from the bridegroom.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Miss Carolyn King, who wore a light gray wool jersey street length dress with black accessories, and a corsage of pink carnations.

The candles were lighted by Miss Patty Shellhorn, in a white dress, and Miss Joan Jenner, in an aqua dress.

Gene Shelhorn of Marion served as best man for the bridegroom, and ushers were Gene Lehner of near Marion and Robert Lehner of Marion.

A reception in the church parlors followed the ceremony. Serving were Mrs. Betty Anderson and Mrs. Loren Gillespie.

Mrs. Lehner was graduated from Harding High School with the class of 1950 and is employed as a clerk at the Standard Oil Co. office on Campbell St. Mr. Lehner, a graduate of Pleasant High School with the class of 1949, is employed with the Erie Railroad. They are residing at 198 Cummin Ave.

Guests from out of town included Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Stegner, Mrs. Edna Holloway and Mrs. Ethel Gilger of Zanesville, Mrs. Mabel Perdew and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bartmess and son, Walter Ray, of Marietta, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schatzinger, Pfc. Gene Schatzinger and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hurt of Tiffin.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Watson of the Buckeye Trailer Court on N. Main St. are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Barbara Jean Stackpole to John Edward Schultz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Schultz of 778 N. Main St.

The single ring ceremony was read by Rev. Howard L. Olewiler, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, in the parsonage Nov. 3 at 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

The bride wore a toast colored glen plaid suit, with which she combined brown accessories. Her corsage was a purple orchid.

Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Oldfield, sister and brother-in-law of the bride. Present for the ceremony were the parents of the couple.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents. The table was centered with a tiered wedding cake with decorations in her colors of blue and gold, bouquets of chrysanthemums throughout the house completed the decorations.

Mrs. Schultz was graduated from Harding High School in 1949 and is employed as a statistical clerk with the Fulfillment Corporation of America. Mr. Schultz, who was graduated in 1948 from Harding, is self-employed as a truck driver. They are residing at 778 N. Main St.

HELD AS WITNESS

CINCINNATI, Nov. 15—(AP)—A 17-year-old nurse's aid has been ordered held as a material witness in a white slave case. The girl was placed under $1,000 bond yesterday by J. Paul Geoghegan, U. S. commissioner, after federal agents arrested her as a juvenile delinquent. The agents said the girl, employed in a greater Cincinnati hospital, will testify against a man and woman who were arrested recently in Nashville, Tenn., and accused of transporting the nurse's aid there for immoral purposes.

CROTON PLANTS

The Croton plant is one of the most colorful and ornate of the tropical shrubs that can be used as a house plant.

There are many forms of this plant with cut and curled leaves —attractively spotted, blotched or edged in green, red, yellow and white.

To grow Crotons successfully, use a soil made up of three parts fibrous loam, one part peat, one part leaf mold, and sufficient sand to produce good drainage. The more light the plant receives the better the color will develop.

Crotons are used effectively in flower arrangements, vases and window boxes, and as table decorations.

Film on Labor, Management To Be Shown

A new documentary film dealing with management and labor, "The Whistle at Eaton Falls," will be shown in an advance screening Friday morning at the New Ohio Theater, Arthur Brown, manager, has announced.

It is an invitational screening, and all major manufacturing industries in Marion will have representative groups of both management and labor present for the showing, which is scheduled for 10 a.m.

Plans are under way for the Pearl Street School PTA to sponsor the regular showing of the picture at the New Ohio Theater at future dates. Tickets will be placed on sale at a date to be announced, and all proceeds realized will be used by the PTA for school projects.

FINAL TOUCH FOR YOUR THANKSGIVING TABLE

We know the silver and crystal will shine, the turkey taste tops, the friends and family gathered around beam just with the joy of being together again. But wouldn't the feast take on even greater meaning if flowers glowed in the center of the table? Stop in and see our magnificent Thanksgiving flowers. We'll take pride in filling your order faithfully and promptly.

Masons Elect F. P. Eyster New Master

Will Be Installed Worshipful Master Of Sojourner's Lodge

Franklin P. Eyster of 396 Olney Ave. was elected worshipful master of Sojourner's Lodge 663, Free and Accepted Masons, at the annual meeting of that lodge held in the Masonic Temple Wednesday.

Elected to serve with Mr. Eyster were Carl O. Jordan, senior warden; Orus W. Wetzel, junior warden; John J. Stafford, treasurer; John H. McCurdy, secretary; Rollin D. Beach Sr., senior deacon; Darwin M. Gilmore, junior deacon; and Raymond E. Beaty, tyler.

The officers will be installed by Most Worshipful Brother James J. Harbage, past grand master of the Grand Lodge of Ohio, F. and A. M., at a special communication at the lodge which will be held on Wednesday, Dec. 5, assisted by Harold W. Hall, district deputy grand master of the 15th Masonic District.

At the next stated meeting, Nov. 26, the Entered Apprentice and Fellowcraft degrees will be conferred on a class of candidates.

Pay Increase Explained To City Teachers

The salary increase voted last week by the Marion Board of Education was explained in detail at a meeting of the 230 teachers in the city schools and Supt. Lester L. Dickey Wednesday afternoon in the West Hall at Harding High School.

The increase, which became effective with the issuance of pay checks to teachers and other employes today, provides a maximum increase for employes in the system at a rate of $400 a year. The raise will not amount to that sum this year as a part of the school term is past. The increase went into effect as of this month and is not retroactive, it was explained.

While the raise provides for an increase in salaries, pay for local teachers is still below the state recommended standards, Mr. Dickey said.

The Hopkins astronomical observatory built by students at Williams College, Williamstown, Mass. in 1838 is believed to be the oldest college observatory still in everyday use in America.

A Foreign Policy for Americans

means to meet the present emergency, but there is no reason to abandon the concept of collective security which, by discouraging and preventing the use of war as national policy, can ultimately protect the liberty of the people of the United States and enforce peace.

Domestic Policy Vital

Just as our nation can be destroyed by war it can also be destroyed by a political or economic policy at home which destroys liberty or breaks down the fiscal and economic structure of the United States.

We cannot adopt a foreign policy which gives away all of our people's earnings or imposes such a tremendous burden on the individual American as, in effect, to destroy his incentive and his ability to increase production and productivity and his standard of living.

It follows that except as such policies may ultimately protect our own security, we have no primary interest as a national policy to improve conditions or material welfare in other parts of the world or to change other forms of government. Certainly we should not engage in war to achieve such purposes.

I don't mean to say that, as responsible citizens of the world, we should not gladly extend charity or assistance to those in need. I do not mean to say that we should not align ourselves with the advocates of freedom everywhere.

But the contribution of supplies to meet extraordinary droughts or famine or refugee problems or other emergencies is very different from a global plan for general free assistance to all mankind on an organized scale as part of our foreign policy. Such a plan, as carried out today, can only be justified on a temporary basis as part of the battle against communism. It has been undertaken as an emergency measure.

Beyond Our Capacity

Our foreign policy in ordinary times should not be primarily inspired by the motive of raising the standard of living of millions throughout the world, because that is utterly beyond our capacity.

We hear a great deal of argument that if we do not deliberately, as part of a world welfare program, contribute to the raising of standards of living of peoples with low income they will turn Communist and go to war against us. Apart from such emergency situations as justified the Marshall Plan, following World War II, I see no evidence that this is true. Recent wars have not been started by poverty-stricken peoples, as in China or India, but by prosperous peoples, as in a Germany led by dictators.

I believe that our international trade relations should be scrupulously fair and generous and should make it clear to the other peoples of the world that we intend to be fair and generous.

For the same reason, and as a contribution to world economic progress, I believe that some program like the Point Four program is justified to a limited extent, even if the Russian threat were completely removed.

But such a program should be sound economic projects, for the most part undertaken by private enterprise. Any United States Government contribution is in the nature of charity to poor countries and should be limited in amount. We make no such contribution to similar projects in the United States.

Moral Leadership

There are a good many Americans who talk about an American century in which America will dominate the world. They rightly point out that the United States is so powerful today that we should assume a moral leadership in the world to solve all the troubles of mankind.

I quite agree that we need that moral leadership not only abroad but also at home. We can take the moral leadership in trying to improve the international organization for peace. I think we can take leadership in the providing of example and advice for the improvement of material standards of living throughout the world.

Above all, I think we can take the leadership in proclaiming the doctrines of liberty and justice and in impressing on the world that only through liberty and law and justice, and not through socialism or communism, can the world hope to obtain the standards which we have attained in the United States. Our leaders can at least stop apologizing for the American system, as they have been apologizing for the past 15 years.

If we confine our activities to the field of moral leadership we shall be successful if our philosophy is sound and appeals to the people of the world.

Our active partisanship in World War II was based on the theory that a Hitler victory would make Germany a serious threat to the liberty of the United States. I did not believe that Germany would be such a threat, particularly after Hitler brought Russia into the war, and that is the reason I opposed the war policy of the Administration from the elections of 1940 to the attack on the United States at Pearl Harbor in December 1941.

A Russian Threat

The more recent measures for Marshall Plan aid on a global scale—and to the extent of billions of dollars of American taxpayers' money—and the Atlantic Pact arms program are and must be based on the theory that Russia today presents a real threat to the security of the United States.

The Russian threat has become so serious today that in defense of the liberty and peace of the people of the United States I think we are justified in extending economic aid and military aid to many countries, but only when it can be clearly shown in each case that such aid will be an effective means of combating Communist aggression. We have now felt it necessary in order to protect the liberty of the United States against an extraordinary special threat to adopt a policy which I do not believe should be considered as part of any permanent foreign policy.

1. We have had to set up a much larger armed force than we have ever had to do before in time of peace, in order to meet the Communist threat. I believe this effort should be directed particularly toward a development of an all-powerful air force.

Economic, Military Aid

2. We have had to adopt as a temporary measure the policy of extending economic and military aid to all those countries which, with the use of such aid, can perhaps prevent the extension of Russian military power or Russian or Communist influence. We have backed that up by announcing definitely to Russia that if it undertakes aggression against certain countries whose independence is important to us it will find itself at war with us. This is a kind of Monroe Doctrine for Europe.

3. We have had to adopt a policy of military alliances to deter, at least, the spread of Communist power. To control sea and air throughout the world, the British alliance is peculiarly important. Again, we hope that with the decline of Russian power and the re-establishment of an international organization for peace such alliances may be unnecessary.

I opposed that feature of the Atlantic Pact which looked toward a commitment of the United States to fight a land war on the continent of Europe and therefore opposed, except to a limited degree, the commitment of land troops to Europe.

Except as we find it absolutely essential to our security, I do not believe we should depart from the principle of maintaining a free hand to fight a war which may be forced upon us, in such a manner and in such places as are best suited at the time to meet those conditions which are changing so rapidly in the modern world. Nothing is so dangerous as to commit the United States to a course which is beyond its capacity to perform with success.

Board Reviews Bellevue Police Chief's Ouster

BELLEVUE, O., Nov. 15—(AP)—Bellevue's Civil Service Board has continued until Monday its review of the firing of Police Chief John E. Baker.

Chief Baker, removed from office last Oct. 15 by Mayor Homer Crecelius, is charged with misuse of a police car, freeing a drunken driver without proper cause, intoxication, and taking obscene pictures of a Negro woman held in city jail on an open charge.

At yesterday's session, patrolman Arnold Zerman testified he saw Baker take obscene pictures of a Negro woman in a jail cell. He said Baker later showed him the pictures, but that he never again saw the woman or any official report of the pictures.

Another witness, state highway patrolman Richard Love of Bellevue, told the board Baker refused to jail an intoxicated motorist and insisted he be freed.

Baker is expected to take the stand Monday. He has indicated he will appeal if the board upholds his firing.
